70 YEARS OF UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Dr. Aparna Srivastava & Aditya Anshu

On 10 December 2018, it will be seventy years since the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly. Thanks to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and States' commitments to its principles, the dignity of millions has been uplifted, untold human suffering prevented and the foundations for a most just world have been laid.

Introduction to UDHR

The Universal Declaration was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 10 December 1948. The Universal Declaration was adopted in the aftermath of the horrors and suffering of the Second World War and has been the cornerstone of the development of a global project committed to the protection of human rights, a project which the Preamble to the Universal Declaration declares to be 'the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world'. The Universal Declaration was the first time that countries agreed on a comprehensive statement of inalienable human rights. It declares that human rights are universal - to be enjoyed by all people, no matter who they are or where they live. The Universal Declaration includes civil and political rights, like the right to life, liberty, free speech and privacy. It also includes economic, social and cultural rights, like the right to social security, health and education.

The Universal Declaration is not a treaty, so it does not directly create legal obligations for countries. However, it is an expression of the fundamental values which are shared by all members of the international community. And it has had a profound influence on the development of international human rights law. Some argue that because countries have consistently invoked the Declaration for more than sixty years, it has become binding as a part of customary international law. Further, the Universal Declaration has given rise to a range of other international agreements which are legally binding on the countries that ratify them. These include:

CHOOSING A CAREER

Vijay Prakash Srivastava

For young people decision about choosing a career is possibly the most important decision in their life. This decision influences their lives in multiple ways which is simple to understand for all of us. Where we'll live, what we'll do, how much we'll earn and what life style we'll adopt is directly related to our job and career.

The space of careers is not the same that it used to be 2-3 decades ago. The world is changing fast and in this dynamic world, people's approach to job and career has also changed. This in fact is a good thing. Our being strategic and contemporary helps us to be closer with reality which leads to better decision making in all walks of life. Decision about choosing a career should be taken with all seriousness to keep us happy, satisfied and without regrets.

In our day to day life we come across many people who have a job. Most of them will be doing their job with sincerity and dedication. But it can't be said that all of them are happy with their job and enjoying it. For most of the people their job is like a routine. How good it will be to get a job of our liking in which we can put our heart and derive happiness from our working. Proper planning for our career may help in this. A career should be chosen. It shouldn't just happen.

There may be two ways in which we can look for a job. The first is to accept whatever comes our way; the other is to understand our career objectives and then work on it to realize this objective. It is true that there is tough competition in the job market. It is for us to decide whether we want to get intimidated by this competition or become ready to equip ourselves to beat the competition. The truth is by proper career planning and hard work it will be easier for you to find your way through this competition.

Career planning is like setting goals and making decisions. Good planning and the right choice will help you get where you want to be. Ideas given here are intended to help first time job seekers and also those who are already employed and are looking for a change.

India has changed a lot since independence. The pace of change has been phenomenal during the decades nineties and twenties. We are counted as the fastest growing economies in the world. We have the largest youth population. New opportunities are coming up every day. We have to identify opportunities suitable for us in order to avail them.

For the earlier generation there were very few career choices and in most of the cases they continued with their first job till retirement. The situation before the new generation is different. There are varied opportunities available to them and commitment to a particular job or company for their entire working life is something, many of them can't think of. The truth is majority of this young population will work in different jobs and organizations in their working life. It makes the whole thing appear more complicated. There are young qualified people who could've got a decent paying job in companies of repute but decided to be on their own with some venture which we call entrepreneurship. Everyone doesn't have this risk taking capability. Where one wants to work and what one wants to do is a matter of personal choice. Those who want to secure a good career should focus on the industries or businesses that have a

English rendering of PM's address in 50th episode of Mann Ki Baat on 25.11.2018

My dear countrymen, Namaskar. On the 3rd of October, 2014, the pious occasion of Vijayadashmi, we embarked upon a journey together through the medium of 'Mann Ki Baat'. This journey has reached its 50th episode today. Thus, this Golden Jubilee Episode is indeed gilt-edged in every sense of the term. Your letters and phone calls this time pertain mostly to these 50 episodes. Anshu Kumar & Amar Kumar from Delhi on Mygov, Vikas Yadav from Patna; on similar lines Monica Jain from Delhi, Prosenjit Sarkar from Bardhaman, West Bengal and Sangeeta Shastri from Nagpur converge in asking a shared question. They are of the view that broadly speaking, their Prime Minister being associated with the latest in technology, Social Media and Mobile Apps; WHY did he choose radio as a medium to connect with his countrymen? Your curiosity is but natural; in this age when Radio was fading into oblivion, why did Modi opt for the airwaves? Let me quote an incident. The year was 1998. I was then a party worker with the Bharatiya Janata Party organization in Himachal. It was the month of May; and I was travelling to a certain place. Evenings tend to get cold in the hilly terrain of Himachal Pradesh, and I stopped by at a way side tea stall and placed an order for tea. It was a tiny joint; there was only one person who would make & serve tea. He was not even adequately clad; it was a stand alone kiosk on the edge of the road. He first picked up a Laddoo from a glass container, offered the sweet meat to me & said, "Sir, eat this before the tea get ready". I was taken aback and asked him "What is the matter? Is it in celebration of an occasion like a wedding?" He replied, "No brother, nothing like that! Don't you know? It's a momentous, joyous occasion". On seeing his rather jubilant exuberance, I asked him, "But what exactly happened?" And he replied, "India has exploded the bomb today!" I exclaimed, "India has exploded the bomb! I don't get it!" Said he "Sir, just listen to the radio". Indeed, that exactly was the topic of discussion on the radio. It was then that he elaborated on how on the day of the nuclear test, the then Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee had announced to the Media and how he broke into a dance on listening to it on the radio. It was matter of great intrigue to me to see a lone tea seller in a remote, snow - clad hilly place, who possibly kept listening to the radio the entire day... watching that particular effect of the news on radio led me to realize & internalise that this was a medium that was truly connected with the masses... and that it was a mighty means of getting across.

In terms of the reach & depth of communication, radio has been incomparable. I have been nursing that feeling ever since, acknowledging its power & strength. Hence when I became the Prime Minister, it was natural for me to turn towards a strong, effective medium. And in 2014, when I took charge as the Pradhan Sevak, Principal Servant, it was my wish to reach out to the masses with the glorious saga of our country's unity, her grand history, her valour, India's diversity, our cultural diversity, virtues embedded in our society such as Purusharth, Tapasya, Passion & Sacrifice; in a nutshell, the great story of India. From remote villages to Metro Cities, from farmers to young professionals ... the array just prompted me to embark upon this journey of 'Mann Ki Baat'.

Every month, we would read letters to the tune of lakhs, listen to phone calls, watch comments on the App & Mygov. Weaving a common thread comprising them all into a fabric of informal conversation, we have been able to travel together, over this rather long distance of 50 episodes. Recently, All India Radio got a survey done on 'Mann Ki Baat'. I came across some feedback that is very interesting. Out of the designated sample in the survey, 70% of respondents on an average happen to be listeners who regularly tune in to "Mann Ki Baat". Most people believe that the greatest contribution of 'Mann Ki Baat' has been the enhancement of a feeling of positivity in our society. The medium of 'Mann Ki Baat' has promoted many a mass revolution. #india positive has been the subject of quite an extensive discussion. This is an exemplary glimpse of the feeling of positivity, innate to our countrymen. People have shared their experiences, conveying the rise of selfless volunteerism as a consequence of 'Mann

"Mann Ki Baat addresses an aspirational India, an ambitious India. For ensuring a bright future for a country such as India, it is our collective responsibility to acknowledge and honour the common man's talent and deeds and Mann Ki Baat is a humble and modest effort in this direction."

Ki Baat'. It is a change where people are increasingly willing to contribute for the sake of service to society. I am overjoyed on account of the fact that through 'Mann Ki Baat', radio is rising as a popular medium, more than ever before. But it's not about just radio... people are connecting with this programme and ensuring their participation through T.V., FM Radio, Mobile, Internet, Facebook Live; along with periscope, through the NarendraModiApp too. I express my gratitude to the entire family of 'Mann Ki Baat' for being a part of it & trusting it whole heartedly.

PHONE CALL-1

Thank you very much for your phone call. Your apprehension is not misplaced. The fact is, if a leader gets hold of a microphone with assured listeners to the tune of millions, what else does he need? Significantly, some young friends have attempted a study on the myriad subjects touched upon, over the many episodes of 'Mann Ki Baat'. They did a lexical analysis of all the episodes to calculate the frequency of occurrence of particular words; whether there were some words that were oft-repeated! One of their findings was that, this programme has remained a political. When 'Mann Ki Baat' commenced, I had firmly decided that it would carry nothing political, or any praise for the Government, nor Modi for that matter anywhere. The greatest bulwark in ensuring adherence to my resolve; in fact my highest inspiration, have been you. As a run up to each episode of 'Mann Ki Baat', the expectations & aspirations of listeners through their letters, online comments & phone calls are crystal clear. Modi may come and go, but this country will never let go of its UNITY & permanence, our culture will always be immortal. These minute stories encompassing a 130 crore countrymen will always stay alive. This new inspiration & zest will keep that a small campaign "selfie with daughter" starting from a small village in Haryana would spread not only throughout the country but also across other countries as well. Every section of the society including celebrities joined in to ignite a process of transformation in a new modern language of change that the present generation understands and follows. At times Mann Ki Baat is also sneered at but 130 crore countrymen ever occupy a special place in my heart. Their hearts and my heart beat to the same rhythm. Mann Ki Baat is not about the Government it is about the society. Mann Ki Baat addresses an aspirational India, an ambitious India. Politics or Political Power are not intrinsic to the Indian ethos; on the contrary social values and society are. In fact, Politics is one of the numerous other aspects of social life. Making politics an all pervasive, powerful factor is not an effective way for a healthy society. At times, political developments and political people assume such overriding prominence that other talents and courageous deeds get over shadowed. For ensuring a bright future for a country such as India, it is our collective responsibility to acknowledge and honour the common man's talent and deeds and Mann Ki Baat is a humble and modest effort in this direction.

PHONE CALL- 2 (PROMITA)

Many thanks for your phone call. In a way your question has a personal, amiable touch. I believe that the biggest achievement of the 50 episodes of Mann Ki Baat is that one feels like talking to a close acquaintance and not to the Prime Minister, and this is true democracy. If I reply to the question asked by you straightaway then I will say that I do not make any preparation. Actually, Mann Ki Baat is a very simple task for me. Every time before Mann Ki Baat, letters are received from people; people share their ideas and view points on Mygov and Narendra Modi Mobile App and there is also a toll free number - 1800117800; and by calling on this number, people record messages in their own voice. My effort is that I read the maximum number of these letters and comments myself before Mann Ki Baat. I listen to many phone calls too. And as taking her to greater heights. At times, when I look back, I am taken aback. Sometimes people who write in from different corners of the country say, "We should not haggle beyond limits with marginal shopkeepers, auto drivers, vegetable sellers et al". I read a letter & then try to weave it with the essence of a similar letter. I would like to share a couple of personal experiences with you ... who knows how soon these will reach our families; who knows when social media will circulate them to usher in a revolution!. The stories that you've sent across in the context of cleanliness, myriad examples of common folk... you never know where a tiny brand ambassador of cleanliness comes into being in various homes; someone who reprimands elders at home; or even admonishingly orders the Prime Minister through a phone call!

Yojana issue on 'Digital India' released

Digital India initiatives have gone beyond political barriers. No State or Central Government has opposed the new initiative of Modi Government that has potential to change India. Union Minister of Electronics & IT and Law & Justice, Sh. Ravi Shankar Prasad said this while releasing Yojana Magazine's special issue on Digital India. He however added that digital medium has to be safe & secure to ensure equitable spread of its benefits. Sh. Prasad said digital inclusion initiative of the Government is already being acknowledged globally.

The Minister advised I&B officials to have in-depth discussion and analysis of data security & privacy aspects of digitalization in the future issue of the magazine. He said in less than five years the Government has made 307 Government services available on Umang platform and efforts are on to bring all Central & State services on this platform. Advances in the communication field have immensely enriched urban people in big cities but those in smaller cities are still dependent on informative platforms like Yojana.

The Yojana is a development monthly magazine devoted to socio-economic issues. It provides a platform for discussion on problems of social and economic development of the country through in-depth analysis of these issues. The magazine is published by Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.

It is published in 13 languages across the nation namely English, Hindi, Urdu,

The Union Minister for Electronics & Information Technology and Law & Justice, Shri Ravi Shankar Prasad releasing the special edition of Yojana magazine on Digital India, in New Delhi on November 30, 2018. The Secretary, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting, Shri Amit Khare, the Secretary, Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology, Shri Ajay Prakash Sawhney and other senior officials are also seen.

Punjabi, Marathi, Gujarati, Bengali, Assamese, Telugu, Tamil, Kannada, Malayalam and Oriya. The Yojana magazine has a subscriber base of over 2 and a half lakhs with a readership extending to over Eight lakhs. Yojana readership includes planners and policymakers as well as aspirants of competitive exams.

The Digital India Programme of the Government aims to transform India into a knowledge-based economy and digitally empowered society by ensuring digital access, digital inclusion, digital empowerment and bridging the digital divide. Digital identity through 122 crore Aadhaar is helping the poor receive the benefits directly into their bank account and has led to a saving of Rs. 90,000 crore. A vast network of more than 3.06 lakh of digital services delivery centres, spread across 2.10 lakh Gram Panchayats, across the country has been created to provide access to more than 300 digital services especially in rural areas at an affordable cost. Over, 1.45 crore people have been imparted training under world largest Digital Literacy Programme i.e. PMGDISHA.

More than 100 BPO units have come up in about 100 small towns of India across 20 States and 2 Union Territories. From 2 units in 2014, now India has 127 units manufacturing mobile handset and components. Promotion of Hardware Manufacturing in the Country has created more than 4.5 lakh jobs opportunities (direct & indirect).

The December issue on Digital India focuses on the initiatives of Digital India leading to digital inclusion and empowerment common person. The articles in the magazine highlight different aspects and domain areas of the digital economy of the country. These have been written by a strong set of authors representing the digital sector. Union Minister of Electronics & IT and Law & Justice. Sh. Ravi Shankar Prasad, Secretary Revenue & CEO UIDAI, Sh. Ajay Bhushan Pandey, Sh. R. Chandrasekhar, Former President NASSCOM, Sh. R.S. Sharma, Chairman, TRAI & others have contributed views on the progress in Digital India during the last four years of this Government.

The Power of technologies has grown at a pace far exceeding our ability to leverage them in key social sectors. The new era requires speed: in thought, in action, in governance and regulatory changes, this has been explained by Shri R. Chandrasekhar, the former president of NASSCOM. Shri R. S. Sharma, Chairman, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India has pointed out that the regulators have the onerous responsibility of maintaining a balance between encouraging innovation, protecting consumers, creating an environment for orderly growth of the industry as well as address unintended consequences of disruptions. Regulations should be adaptive, collaborative and impact assessment of regulation should be done.

Cyber security issues in digitalization and the changing paradigm of Cyber Security and methodological approach has been given by Ms Rama Vedashree, CEO, Data Security Council of India. A special article on Aadhaar as empowerment enabler and a game changer for the poor and for India, by Shri Ajay Bhushan Pandey CEO, UIDAI has also been included in the issue. Aadhaar ensures that the benefits reach directly to the deserving beneficiaries in a hassle-free manner.

It also includes the article on inclusive growth and transformative impact of Digital India leading to ease of living by Ms Simmi Chaudhary, Economic Adviser, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY). The dynamics, opportunities and the growth in the Electronic Manufacturing sector of India have been highlighted by Shri Pankaj Mohindroo, Chairman of India Cellular & Electronics Association.

Shri Lalitesh Katragadda, founder of Indihood, Chief Product Adviser for Avanti Finance in his article has shared his idea of how Digital India is at the heart of Poorna Swaraj. The importance of the use and proliferation of language technology for Indian languages in digital devices has been explained by Shri Rajiv Sangal, Professor, Language Technologies Research Centre, IIIT Hyderabad. Rapid advances in IT has revolutionaries the role of libraries, therefore, the needs of digitisation of traditional libraries more and more for the growth and development in education and research is highlighted by Shri Ajit Mondal, Assistant Professor, Head, Department of Education, Surendranath College for Women, Kolkata.

The magazine provides an apt platform to showcase India's position in the digital revolution as the country is generating future pathways powered by technology and leading towards Trillion Dollar Digital Economy.

MANN KI BAAT...

the episode of Mann Ki Baat draws closer, I read ideas and inputs sent by you very minutely while travelling.

My countrymen stay in my heart every moment and that is how the writer's situation and ideas expressed in the letter become part of my thought process. That letter does not remain a mere a piece of paper for me. As it is I have spent close to 40 to 45 years as a travelling mendicant and have been to most of the districts in our country including the remotest once where I spent a lot of time. That is why I am able to relate myself to the Modi's. In this way for those 30 minutes they become Narendra Modi. I congratulate and thank those persons for their talent and skills. I would request all of you also to kindly listen to this programme in your regional language as well. I sincerely thank from the core of my heart my friends in the media who regularly telecast Mann Ki Baat on their channels. No political person is ever happy with the media, he feels that he is getting a very little coverage or the coverage given to him is negative. But many issues raised in Mann Ki Baat have been adopted by the media. Issues such as cleanliness, Road safety, drugs free India, selfie with daughter have sides become co-travelers in our journey of idea-sharing. None of the two even realizes that how and when one other's has abandoned its idea and accepted and owned the idea of the other side.

Today's youths have this special quality that they won't do anything which they do not believe themselves and whenever they believe in something, they follow that leaving everything else. People generally talk of a communication gap between the elders and teenagers in the family. In fact, the scope of discussion with teenagers is quite limited in most of the families. Most of the time these talks remain limited to studies, habits or life style and the "do's" and "don'ts". An open discussion without any expectations is gradually on the decline and this too is a matter of concern.

Communication will be more effective if we "accept" instead of "expect" and "discuss" instead of "dismiss". My effort is to have a continuous dialogue with the youth in various programmes or through social media. I try to learn from whatever they are doing or whatever they are thinking. They are store house of ideas. They are extremely energetic, innovative and focused. I try to share the efforts and achievements of the youth as much as possible through "Mann Ki Baat". There is a general complaint that the younger generation asks too many questions. I say it is good that the youth ask questions.

It is good as it shows that they want to analyse everything from its very root. Some people say that the youth do not have patience but my belief is that the youth do not have any time to waste- this is the point which helps the present day youth become more innovative because they want to accomplish things quickly. We feel that the youths are very ambitious today and they plan big. I feel it is good, dream big and achieve bigger successes; after all, this is "the New India". Some people say that the younger generation wants to accomplish a many things at a time. I say what is wrong in it. They do so because they are adept in multitasking. If we just look around, we find that it is the youth who are bringing in transformation of society in a big way, may it be social entrepreneurship, start-ups, sports or any other field. Those youth who have dared to ask questions and have had the courage to dream big. If we put these ideas of our youth into practice and provide them conducive environment to express themselves, they surely will bring about a constructive and a positive change in the country- they are already doing so.

My dear countrymen, Vineeta ji from Gurugram has posted on MyGov that in Mann Ki Baat I should talk about the "Constitution Day" which falls on the 26th November. She says that this day is special because we are going to enter into the 70th year of our Constitution adoption. Thank you very much for your suggestion Vineeta ji.

Yes, tomorrow is the Constitution Day. A day to remember those great personalities who drafted our Constitution. Our Constitution was adopted on 26th November, 1949. The Constituent Assembly took 2 years 11 months and 17 days to accomplish this stupendous task of drafting the Constitution. Just imagine, these luminaries gave us such a comprehensive and detailed Constitution within a period of just less than 3 years. The extraordinary pace at which they drafted the Constitution is an example of Time Management and productivity to emulate even today. This also inspires us to accomplish our responsibilities within a record time. The Constituent Assembly was an amalgamation of the great talents of the country, each one of them was committed to provide a Constitution to the country which empowers the people of India and enriches even the poorest of the poor.

The unique point in our Constitution is that the rights and duties have been very comprehensively detailed. A balance between these two in the lives of our citizens will take our nation forward. If we respect the rights of others, our rights will automatically get protected and similarly if we fulfill our duties, then also our rights will get automatically protected. I still remember that in 2010 when 60 years of the adoption of the Constitution were being celebrated, we had taken out a procession by placing our Constitution a top an elephant. This has been a memorable incident to increase awareness about our Constitution among the youth and to connect them to the various aspects of the Constitution. In the year 2020, we shall complete 70 years as a Republic and in 2022, we shall enter 75th year of our Independence.

Let us all take forward the values enshrined in our Constitution and ensure Peace, Progress and Prosperity in our country.

My dear countrymen, while talking about the Constituent Assembly, the contribution of that great man cannot be forgotten who played a pivotal role in the Constituent Assembly. This great man was none other than our revered Dr. Baba Saheb Ambedkar. His death anniversary or Mahaparinirvan Diwas falls on 6th December. I, on behalf of all countrymen, pay my homage to Baba Saheb who gave the right to live with dignity to crores of Indians. Democracy was embedded deep in Baba Saheb's nature and he used to say that India's democratic values have not been imported from outside. What is a republic and what is a parliamentary system- are nothing new to India. He had made a very moving appeal in the Constituent Assembly that we have to safeguard our hard fought democracy till the last drop of our blood. He also used to say that we, Indians may be from different background but, yes, we place and context of the letter. Then, I note down facts like the name of the village and of the person. Honestly speaking, Mann Ki Baat carries my voice but the examples, emotions and spirit represent my countrymen, I thank every person contributing to Mann Ki Baat. There are lakhs of persons whose names I have not been able to include in Mann Ki Baat but without any disappointment, they continue to send in their letters and comments. I firmly believe that your ideas and your views will continue reaching me in even greater numbers and will help make Mann Ki Baat more interesting, effective and useful. An effort is also made that the concerned department should pay attention to such letters and comments which, some how, could not be included in Mann Ki Baat. I also thank my colleagues from All India Radio, FM Radio, Doordarshan, other TV Channels and the Social Media. It is due to their hard work that Mann Ki Baat reaches maximum number of people. The team from All India Radio prepares each episode for broadcast in a number of regional languages. Some of them very aptly narrate in a voice and style resembling that of

been taken up by the media and turn into campaigns. TV channels made it the most watched radio programme - I sincerely thank and congratulate the media. Without your contribution and cooperation, this journey of Mann Ki Baat would have been incomplete.

PHONE CALL- 3 (NIDHI BAHUGUNA)

Nidhi ji, many thanks for your phone call! To tell you the truth, I have no such secret. What I am doing must be happening in families as well. In simple words, I may say that I try to cast myself into the mould of that young man, and put myself under his conditions and try to adjust and match the wave length accordingly. There are old baggage's of our own lives and when they do not come in the way, it becomes easier to understand others. Sometimes our inhibitions or prejudices become a big hurdle in communication. I prefer to understand the other man's point of view rather than going through the process of acceptance, rejection and reaction. My experience has been that by adopting this approach, the other side also tries to come to our wave length rather than arguing or creating pressure in order to convince there by removing the communication gap and both shall have to keep the national interest above all the other things. "India First" was the basic doctrine of Dr. Baba Saheb Ambedkar. Once again my humble tribute to revered Baba Saheb.

My dear countrymen, two days back on 23rd November, we all celebrated Shri Guru Nanak Dev Jayanti and next year in 2019 we shall be celebrating his 550th Prakash Parv. Guru Nanak Dev Ji always envisaged the welfare of entire humanity. He always showed the path of truth, work, service, kindness and amity to the society. The country will observe Guru Nahak Dev Ji's 550th birth anniversary in a grand way, its soothing colours will not only spread in India alone but will get sprinkled the world over. All states and Union Territories have been requested to celebrate the occasion in a grand manner. Guru Nanak Dev Ji's 550th Prakash Parv will be celebrated in a similar manner in all the countries of the world as well. (i) The selection of Act Apprentices for training will be done from the eligible candidates on the basis of merit. There will be no written Examination and interview in this selection.

(ii) Merit list will be prepared on the basis of percentage of total mark obtained in 10th or equivalent examination and marks obtained in ITI by the candidate from recognized Educational Board/Institute.

(iii) The calculation of percentage of marks will be on the basis of total marks obtained in 10th or its equivalent examination from an Educational Board/Institute and not on the basis of marks of any subject or a group of subjects.

(iv) If more than one candidate gets equal marks/percentage in 10th examination or its equivalent examination and marks obtained in ITI then the elder candidate whose date of birth is earlier will be higher in rank than the candidate whose date of birth is later. The above information will be computerized and accordingly the list will be prepared.

(v) Selected list will be prepared Tradewise/Communitywise Categorywise (reservation Category) on the basis of merit.

(vi) The candidate equal to 1.5 times of the number of slots for Act Apprentices' shall be called for verification of original educational testimonials and their physical fitness by way of medical examination. A final merit list will be prepared equal to the number of slots in the descending order of percentage of marks obtained by the candidate in matriculation under 10+2 examination system and ITI.

(vii) The candidates will be declared fit for training after being given the medical fitness certificate on successful medical examination by Authorized Railway Medical officer. If the candidate fails in medical examination, his/her candidature will be cancelled and he/she will have no right for training.

(viii) No Daily allowance or Travelling allowance will be admissible to candidates reporting for verification of documents.

11. Hostel/Residential facility will not be provided to selected candidates for training. The selected candidates will have to make their own arrangement for accommodation.

12. List of selected candidates will be uploaded on NCR website www.ncr.indianrailway.gov.in and eligible selected candidates will also be informed by post. No correspondence will be done with other candidates in this matter.

13. It is made clear that there is no guarantee for appointment in Railways after successful training of Act Apprenticeship (Railway Board's Letter No. E(MPP)/2009/6/14 dated 06.10.2015).

14. The candidates who have already completed their training under Apprentice's Act, 1961 from any institute/establishment are not eligible to apply under this notification.

15. Agreement of Training—The selected candidate or his/her guardian (in case of minor) has to execute an apprenticeship contract or agreement with employer before apprenticeship training as prescribed under the Apprentice Act, 1961.

16. After completion of training every apprentice has to undergo Trade Test conducted by Director General, Employment & Training, Ministry of Labour & Employment, New Delhi. Passed candidates will be given National Trade Certificate but there is no guarantee for employment in Railways.

17. The decision of Railway administration regarding selection of candidates and their training will be final. If later on at any stage it is found that selected candidate has given wrong/false information and his/her integrity is found suspicious, the candidate will be dismissed without giving any notice.

CHOOSING A ...

good future. But this can't be the only criteria. In fact you should look within before you look outside for a career.

It always helps to make an inventory of your personality attributes. If your job matches your personality then the sailing may be smooth. For example a job in sales and marketing may not be the ideal job for someone who is introvert and does not like to meet new people. However if we assume that such a person wants a marketing job then s/he will have to come out of the introvert nature to become an effective marketer.. The lesson here is to choose a job which matches your personality or brings the required changes in your personality to match with your job. It may appear difficult but is possible. Many people have accomplished this.

Equally important are your skills. All of us have few skills and some are more skilled than others. All jobs require certain basic skills. At higher level skill requirements become more specific. Make sure that you possess the fundamental skills for the job you are looking at. Again it is worth noting that skills can be learnt and developed. So in case if you find yourself lacking in some skill you may overcome with efforts and persistence.

A degree doesn't necessarily make you skilled. In various surveys it has already been advised that more than half of engineering graduates are not considered employable as they lack in many skills sought by employers. Don't consider your degree or diploma to be organization you want to join. For example if you are a graduate mechanical engineer, various options will a passport for your dream job. You'll require much more than this.

It is simple to understand that you should have adequate qualification for the job. If you're still a student and have a particular job in mind find out the eligibility requirements. As an explanation those who want to work as an economist will require a master's degree in the subject. For clerical and generalist officers' position in public sector banks a graduate degree will suffice.

Many of us get attracted to a job without having sufficient knowledge about it. We succeed in getting the job and then come to realize that it is much different than what we had expected. It is advisable to collect as much information as possible relating to the job or position. Details given in a job advertisement should not be considered enough. Searches on internet may be of help but to get first hand information you may try to meet few people who are already working in those jobs.

Your career strategy doesn't get complete with only deciding the kind of job you want to do. You should have clarity about the kind of

be open to you. There would be public sector undertakings like NTPC, BHEL, ONGC etc., companies in private sector and also engineering services of Central government among others with requirement of such engineers. Not all of them may have vacancies in a given time frame but knowing your preferences will work good for you. If you are concerned only with the job and don't bother about organization you have to be clear about this as well.

The attitude to have a job just as a means of livelihood is considered primitive now. A new trend is being seen where people are relating their passion with the career they want to have. The profession chosen by them is not necessarily directly related to their studies. Frankly, this cannot be possible for everybody. However it is important to choose a job which you like and in which you can feel happy. This will require some exploration. Those with a creative bent of mind may feel scuffled in a typical bureaucratic organization.

Care needs to be taken in not judging a job just on the basis of salary and financial benefits it offer. Of course you should be compensated for your time and contribution in a job ,but it is also important to look for the learning and growth opportunities it offers. The growth needs not be only in form of career progression but should also include your personal and intellectual growth. It is always better to work with those organizations which have a clear human resource development policy and which invest well in their human capital.

There are more lateral career opportunities available now than ever before. So those who are looking for a change, are in a better position to exercise such option. However such a decision should be taken after proper analysis and should not be based on flimsy reasons. Some times it is not easy to clearly find out how better is the new job proposal. On some on bitter note. There have been instances of people wanting to return to their earlier employer. If you had maintained good relations then it will be easier for you to return.

If you want to remain relevant in the job market you'll need to upgrade your knowledge and skills. Those who create a distinct positive identity will always be in demand and in a better position to move to higher or better roles.

When one doesn't succeed in getting a job it is easier to blame the situation, system or competition. This is not going to help. You can be successful with your hard work, persistence and by equipping yourself with right attributes. Analyze your weaknesses and strengths. Weaknesses can be converted into strengths. it requires determination. Tune your mindset towards parameters it may offer an advantageous position but may also require few compromises to be made. You have to judge every offer in its totality and make sure that in most respects you're getting a better deal. Don't switch to another job just because it offers a higher salary. It may lack growth opportunity or the work culture may be disappointing. So every major aspect the job has to be evaluated. Also it is advisable not to leave a job success, clarify your objectives and intensify your efforts to move closer to your career goals. Your career strategy should be a well thought decision with the objective of making best of your knowledge, skill and aptitude and ultimately realizing your potential regard I remembered about of Lakhpat Saheb Gurudwara. This Gurudwara suffered severe damage due to the devastating earth quake of 2001 in Gujarat. But, the manner in which the local people joined hands with the state Government in renovating it, is an example even today.

The Government of India has taken a significant decision of building Kartarpur corridor so that our countrymen could easily visit Kartarpur in Pakistan to pay homage to Guru Nanak Dev Ji at that holy sight.

My dear countrymen, we shall meet once again in the next episode after this 50th episode of Mann Ki Baat and I am sure that in this episode of Mann Ki Baat today I got an opportunity for the first time to talk to you about the spirit behind this programme because of your questions. But our journey shall continue. The more you connect with us, our journey will gain greater depth, providing, satisfaction to one and all. At times a question arises in the minds of people's as to what I achieved through Mann Ki Baat. I would like to say today that of the feedback of this programme, one of the points that touches my heart most- is when people tell me that when we sit with all our family members to listen to Mann Ki Baat, we feel that the head of our family is sitting with us and sharing his ideas with us. When I heard this comment in a larger circle, I felt satisfied to know that I am yours, I am one amongst you, I am with you, you elevated me and in a way, and in this way I will continue to remain connected with you as a family member through Man Ki Baat. Your joys and sorrows are my joys and sorrows too; your expectations are my expectations also; your ambitions are my ambitions.

Come on, let us take this journey further. Many many thanks. -PIB

The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and

The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

Other binding agreements which expand on the rights contained in the Universal Declaration include:

The Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination 1965.

The Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women 1979.

The Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment 1984.

The Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989.

The Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities 2006.

The values enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights are as relevant and timeless today as they were 70 years ago.

This is a challenging time for human rights advocates: a time when many human rights norms and standards are under threat, when we are witnessing a rise in xenophobic populism, profiling on racial and religious grounds, attacks on human rights defenders, and pushback against multilateral institutions, including this Council.

It is therefore timely to reflect on what "universality" means, 70 years on, and its applicability to today's challenges:

It means that all human beings are entitled to full realization of all of their rights, without exception. It means that migrants don't check their human

UDHR in detail

The UDHR has an amazing legacy. Its universal appeal is reflected in the fact that it holds the Guinness World Record as the most translated document - available to date in 512 languages, from Abkhaz to Zulu.

As stated in the preamble, "recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world." The Declaration empowers all of us to stand up for our own human rights and those of others.

The Declaration is a living document, universal in scope and fiercely relevant to each individual.

THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Facts and Figures

WHAT

The Declaration consists of one preamble and 30 articles affirming people's rights and freedoms. These articles are not legally binding in themselves but have been elaborated in subsequent international treaties, economic transfers, regional human rights instruments, national constitutions, and other laws.

WHY

When the atrocities committed by the Nazis became fully apparent after World War II, the consensus within the world community was that the United Nations Charter did not sufficiently define the rights to which it referred.

It was therefore decided to create a declaration that specified the fundamental rights of individuals.

WHEN

The United Nations General Assembly adopted the Declaration on 10 December 1948. Human Rights Day is now celebrated every year on 10 December.

WHERE

The Declaration has been translated into more than 500 languages, making it the most translated document in the world.

Where after all do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home - so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any map of the world. (...) Such are the places where every man, woman, and child seeks equal justice, equal opportunity, equal dignity without discrimination.

Unless these rights have meaning there, they have little meaning anywhere. Without concerted citizen action to uphold them close to home, we shall look in vain for progress in the larger world.

- Eleanor Roosevelt,
Chair of the UDHR Drafting Committee

Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.

Article 29

Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.

In the exercise of his rights and freedoms, everyone shall be subject only to such limitations as are determined by law solely for the purpose of securing due recognition and respect for the rights and freedoms of others and of meeting the just requirements of morality, public order and the general welfare in a democratic society.

These rights and freedoms may in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 30

Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.

Human Rights and India

India took active part in drafting of the Universal Declaration on Human Rights. The Indian delegation to the United Nations made important contributions in drafting of the Declaration, especially highlighting the need for reflecting gender equality. India is a signatory to the six core human rights covenants, and also the two Optional Protocols to the Convention of the Rights of the Child.

Since inception, the Indian Constitution incorporated most of the rights enumerated in the Universal Declaration in two parts, the Fundamental Rights and the Directive Principles of State Policy, that covered almost the entire field of Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The first set of rights are enunciated in Articles 2 to 21 of the Declaration and incorporated under the Fundamental Rights - Articles 12 to 35 of the Constitution. These include the Right to Equality, Right to Freedom, Right Against Exploitation, Right to Freedom of Religion, Cultural & Educational Rights, Saving of Certain Laws and Right to Constitutional Remedies.

The second set of rights enunciated in Articles 22 to 28 of the Declaration is incorporated under Directive Principles of State Policy - Article 36 to 51 of the Constitution. These include 'right to social security, right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favourable conditions of work and protection against unemployment, right to equal pay for equal work, right to existence worthy of human dignity, right to rest and leisure, right to freely participate in the cultural life of the community, right to free & compulsory education, promotion of welfare of people, equal justice & free legal aid and the principles of policy to be followed by the State.'

However, respect for human rights as a part of its social philosophy has existed in the Indian ethos for a long time.

Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993 (As amended in 2006) provided for the constitution of a National Human Rights Commission at the Union level, which steers State Human Rights Commission in States and Human Rights Courts for better protection of Human Rights and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

The National Human Rights Commission and the State Human Rights Commissions are now very much a part of the life of the nation and, increasingly, of consequence to the quality of governance in the country. Awareness of the rights guaranteed by the Constitution, and included in the international instruments to which India is a State party, has increased dramatically in the country.

Conclusion

The universal ideals contained in the Declaration's 30 Articles range from the most fundamental - the right to life - to those that make life worth living, such as the rights to food, education, work, health and liberty. Emphasizing the inherent dignity of every human being, its Preamble underlines that human rights are "the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world."

With the memories of both World Wars and the Great Depression still fresh in their minds, the drafters spelled out what cannot be done to human beings and what must be done for them.

Chilean drafter Hernán Santa Cruz observed that the then 58 member states of the UN had agreed that human rights derive from "the fact of existing" - they are not granted by any state. This recognition, he said "gave rise to the inalienable right to live free from want and oppression and to fully develop one's personality."

Because they are inherent to every woman, man and child, the rights listed in the 30 Articles are indivisible - they are all equally important and cannot be positioned in a hierarchy. No one human right can be fully realised without realising all other rights. Put another way, denial of one right makes it more difficult to enjoy the others.

The human rights movement has made great strides in the past seven decades, but abuses still occur with saddening regularity. The anniversary of the Declaration is an opportunity to celebrate successes and recommit ourselves to the principles outlined in the Declaration's 30 Articles.

Movies can be transformative: Tourism Minister Shri K. J. Alphons at IFFI 2018 Closing Ceremony

Cinema knows no language; films inspire us and connect us as human beings: I & B Minister Col. Rajyavardhan Rathore

Shri K.J. Alphons, Union Minister of State for Tourism (I/C) has said that Indian movie industry has made millions of people happy, not only in India but also in other parts of the world. Movies can be transformative. Nowhere else in the world have we seen feature films on sanitary pads or toilets made. He was addressing the valedictory ceremony of 49th International Film Festival of India in Panaji, Goa November 28, 2018.

Drawing a parallel between tourism and movies, Shri Alphons said that tourism and movie industry are closely related, since they have the single objective of bringing people close together and making them happy. In a country where many people have sacrificed their lives for their nation, there is plenty of subject matter for amazing realistic movies, he added.

Col. Rajyavardhan Rathore, Union Minister of State for Information & Broadcasting (I/C) said, through a video message, that cinema knows no language and that the 49th International Film Festival of India in Goa proves just that. "Films inspire all of us, they entertain us, they make us strive and above all, they connect us all as human beings", he added.

Smt. Mridula Sinha, Governor of Goa; Shri Shripad Naik, Union Minister of State for AYUSH (I/C); Shri VP Singh Badnore, Governor of Punjab; Shri Vijay Sardesai, Minister for Town and Country Planning, Goa; Shri Manoj Tiwari, Member of Parliament; Shri Amit Khare, Secretary, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting; Shri Dharmendra Sharma, Chief Secretary of Goa; and other officials were present on the occasion.

Many renowned film personalities such as IFFI 2018 Lifetime Achievement Awardee Dan Wolman, Anil Kapoor, Arbaaz Khan (son of master screenwriter Salim Khan), Indian Panorama Jury Chief Rahul Rawail, Rakeysh Omprakash Mehra and Kabir Bedi too attended the closing ceremony.

Stating that the 49th edition has been a great success, Shri Khare said that film bazaar has elicited response from various countries across the world. He said that Israel has been the focus country and Jharkhand the state focus. Noting that the preparations for the golden jubilee celebration of the festival next year has begun, the Secretary said that the government would like to showcase the film culture of each and every region of the country and trace the history of IFFI from the 1st to the 49th. He added that the facilities at Goa would be enhanced, given the overwhelming response received from film-lovers. He said that this is being done, so that the 50th IFFI can have many more delegates than this year.

Shri Vijay Sardesai, Minister for Town and Country Planning, Goa said that regional cinema has to find a place in national cinema. Film makers should be encouraged to come forward to know Goan way of life, he added.

The nine day long festival of quality cinema concludes with the world premier of German film 'Sealed Lips'. Various prestigious awards including Golden Peacock, Silver Peacock, Lifetime Achievement Award were conferred during the star-studded ceremony.

On the occasion, the IFFI Special Award has been conferred to Salim Khan for his Lifetime contribution to Cinema. Arbaaz Khan, son of Salim Khan, received the award on behalf of his father. Salim Khan revolutionized Indian cinema in the 1970s, transforming and reinventing the Bollywood formula, pioneering the Bollywood blockbuster format, and pioneering genres such as the masala film and the Dacoit Western. Salim Khan was also responsible for creating the "angry young man" character archetype and launching Amitabh Bachchan's career.

Ukrainian film Donbass, directed by Sergei Loznitsa bagged the award for Best Film in IFFI 2018. The award comes with the Golden Peacock trophy, certificate and a cash prize amount of Rs. 40,00,000, shared equally between the Director and the Producer.

Donbass tells the story of a hybrid war taking place in a region of Eastern Ukraine, involving an open armed conflict alongside killings and robberies perpetrated on a mass scale by separatist gangs. In Donbass, war is called peace and propaganda is uttered as truth. A journey through Donbass unfolds as a series of curious adventures. This is not just a tale of one region or a political system; it is about a world lost in post-truth and fake identities.

The Best Director award was given to Lijo Jose Pellissery for the film 'Ee. Ma. Yau.', who bagged the Silver Peacock Trophy and a cash prize of Rs. 15,00,000. While Anastasiia Pustovit was awarded the Best Actor (Female) for the Ukrainian film "When the Trees Fall", Chemban Vinod won the Best Actor (Male) for the film 'Ee. Ma. Yau'. Both received the Silver Peacock Trophy and cash Prize of Rs 10,00,000 each.

'Ee. Ma. Yau.' is a stunning satire on death and how it affects human lives. Chemban Vinod plays the role of 'Eeshi', the son who tries to arrange a worthy funeral for his father but is met with unpredictable obstacles and reactions from different quarters. 'When the Trees Fall' is the story of the 5 years old rebellious girl Vitka, her teenage cousin Larysa and her boyfriend Sear. The film describes the gross poverty, ignorance and racism of rural Ukraine and takes place in the extraordinary physical ugliness of the nearest city. Anastasiia Pustovit plays the role of Larysa in the film.

Special Jury award, which carries the Silver Peacock Award and a cash prize of Rs. 15,00,000, was awarded to Milko Lazarov for his Yakut movie 'Aga'. 'Aga' tells the story of Sedna and Nanook, an elderly couple from Yakutia, and the particular challenges in their life in the midst of a frigid landscape. Alberto Monteras II received the Centenary award for 'Best Debut Feature Film of a Director' for his Filipino Movie 'Respeto'.
