SWAMI VIVEKANANDA AND HIS IDEAS

Shantesh Kumar Singh & Shubh Kirti Singh

Swami Vivekananda ji is a well known personality both in India and abroad since 1893. He became an inspiring personality in both the east and the west just after his speech on Hinduism at Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893. His ideas become a philosophy which is followed by people globally. In 21st century, a youthful and zealous population of India, which is transforming tomorrow by their actions today, is living the dream of Narendranath Dutta (Swami Vivekananda), the saint with a purpose. At the tender age of 13 determined with the fervour to know the soul behind all creations he went on to a journey which became a legend.

The Thoughts of Vivekananda

Vivekanand's contribution for today's India can best be described as the 3C's- community, courage and Country. When a young individual is entrenched in dilemmas of life, he/she can lend a thought to the famous saint of India and learn to fight difficulties with courage and serve their country and community. His life and teachings are of inestimable value to the West for an understanding of the mind of Asia. William James, the Harvard philosopher, called the Swami the "paragon of Vedantists." Max Muller and Paul Deussen, the famous Orientalists of the nineteenth century, held him in genuine respect and affection.

"His words," writes Romain Rolland, "are great music, phrases in the style of Beethoven, stirring rhythms like the march of Handel choruses. I cannot touch these sayings of his, scattered as they are through the pages of books, at thirty years' distance, without receiving a thrill through my body like an electric shock. And what shocks, what transports, must have been produced when in burning words they issued from the lips of the hero!"

By expressing his Community based approach, Swami Vivekananda sees the "regeneration of India" in strong and sufficient community. To achieve this, he treats people to be united and develop solidarity towards fellow Indians by rooting out the superstitions, social evils and caste superiority from the society. Considering caste system the greatest impediment in the unity and oneness of the country, he appeals to all Indians to renounce it and break the monotonous nature of caste based social hierarchy. For his workers once he said that "I want strength, manhood, kshatrawirya, or the virility of a warrior, and brahmateja, or the radiance of a brahmin.... These men will stand aside from the world, give their lives, and be ready to fight the battle of Truth, marching on of selfless action towards the society. He adds further that it is the prime responsibility of every individual that he would work to awaken the masses by communicating his knowledge to them and imbibe the feeling of from country to country. One blow struck outside of India is equal to a hundred thousand struck within. Well, all will come if the Lord wills it.' That shows his love and affection for his own people and nation.

In his address to youth he directs them to show exemplary unity. Every individual in the society should always be ready for the sacrifice to the nation.

Vivekananda's entire thought moves on the axis of Country. As being a great nationalist, his all concepts of community, courage, neo Vedanta, social change and democracy moves around his courage and devote their lives in the selfless- service to the nation. In his theory of neo-Vedanta he clears that the service of a man is the service of God therefore instead of adopting absolute renunciation to life one should move on the path dream to resurgent India and converting it into a great and powerful nation. For it, he considers religion as the basis of national unity and devoted youth as a mean to achieve this idea of

HOW TO CHOOSE THE BEST COURSE AFTER CLASS 12 IF YOU ARE A PCM STUDENT

Rruchi Shrimalli

Soon, students will be taking their Class 12 exams. Many of the Science students from PCM (Physics, Chemistry, Math) stream will sit for their engineering entrance exam (such as JEE exam or BITSAT) while a majority of those from PCB (Physics, Chemistry, Biology) stream will sit for their medical entrance exam (NEET). But there are many students who fall out of the realm of these two engineering entrance exams or just want to try a different career.

In this article, we will talk about different courses you can do after Class 12 if you are from Physics, Chemistry, Math (PCM) stream - and the careers they can potentially lead to:

B.Tech (Bachelor of Technology) or B.E. (or Bachelor of Engineering)

JEE Main exam is a gateway to enter 31 NITs (National Institutes of Technology), 23 IIITs (Indian Institutes of Information Technology), 23 CFTIs (Centrally Funded Technical Institutions) and a number of other institutes participating in the exam. You may also crack the JEE Advanced exam and get an entry into the most prestigious engineering institutes of India - the IITs (Indian Institutes of Technology).

Some other engineering entrance exams in India that PCM students can try out for B.Tech admissions are:

- AMUEEE (Aligarh Muslim University's Engineering Entrance Exam),
- BITSAT (Admission Test for Birla Institute of Technology and Science),
- COMEDK UGET (Undergraduate Entrance Test for admission to the Consortium of Medical Engineering and Dental Colleges of Karnataka),
- IPU CET (Common Entrance Test for Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University),
- KIITEE (Entrance Examination for Kalinga Institute of Industrial Technology),
- MET (Manipal Entrance Test which was earlier known as

Manipal University's Online Entrance Test (MU OET)

- SET (Symbiosis Entrance Test),
- SRMJEEE (Engineering Entrance Exam for SRM Institute of Science and Technology), and
- VITEEE (VIT University's Engineering Entrance Exam). Armed with a B.E. or B.Tech degree, students can later apply to become a government contractor (for example, civil or electrical engineers), opt for an MBA and move into management, do M.Tech, M.E. or M.S. from a prestigious Indian college or foreign university and work as an engineer or perhaps teach in an engineering college, try for the UPSC exam to become an IAS officer (or opt for other administrative exams), or sit for the IES (Indian Engineering Services) exam and work in Railways or public sector companies.

If you are interested in Merchant Navy jobs, you can opt for maritime courses such as B.E. or B.Tech in Marine Engineering. After completing your degree, you'll need to do one-year long Graduate Marine Engineering (GME) course before you can work as a Marine Engineer in a Merchant Navy ship.

Technical Entry in Indian Army

Unmarried male candidates between the ages of 16 years 6 months and 19 years 6 months can apply for Permanent Commission in the Indian Army right after Class 12. You need at least 70% aggregate marks in Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics in Class 12 board exams. Selected candidates are given a stipend of Rs 21,000 per month and given 4 years of training. After completion of 3 years, candidates can join NDA while on completion of 4 years, they can directly join the Army at the rank of Lt (Lieutenant).

Eligible candidates can apply for the Services Selection Board (SSB) interview through the Join Indian Army website. The

ENGLISH RENDERING OF PM'S ADDRESS IN 51ST EPISODE OF MANN KI BAAT ON 30.12.2018

My Dear countrymen, Namaskar. The year 2018 is about to conclude. We shall soon enter 2019. At such a juncture, it is natural to reflect on the year gone by; it is equally so, to hear about resolutions for the year being ushered in. Whether it be the life of an individual, the life of a society at large or the life of a Nation collectively, everybody has to look back & ponder; at the same time one has to try & look forward to the best extent possible. Only then can the gains of experience be availed of, only then can one's self-confidence renew further. What exactly should we do in order to ensure a change in our lives, simultaneously contributing our bit in taking our country & society forward? Many good wishes to all of you for the year 2019. You must have wondered how to keep 2018 etched in your memory! It is important to bear in mind HOW India as a country, as a collective entity powered by the might of a hundred & thirty crore people remembers the year 2018; something that swells our hearts with pride.

The year 2018 saw the launching of the world's biggest health insurance scheme 'Ayushman Bharat'. Electricity reached each & every village of the country this year. Noted world institutions have accepted that the country has taken strides in the area of poverty alleviation at a record pace. On account of the unwavering resolve of our countrymen, swachhata, sanitation coverage is rapidly advancing towards crossing the 95% mark.

After Independence, for the first time ever, the tricolor was hoisted at Red Fort on the 75th anniversary of the formation of the Azad Hind Government. In honour of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel who bonded the entire country around a common thread of unity, India witnessed the coming up of the tallest statue in the world, 'Statue of Unity'. The country secured a place of pride & glory in the entire world. The highest United Nations Environment Award 'Champions of the Earth' was conferred upon India. The world duly took notice of India's efforts in the areas of Solar Energy & Climate Change. The first General Assembly of the International Solar Alliance was held in India. It is due to our collective efforts that our country has seen unprecedented improvement in the 'Ease of doing business' rankings. The country's self defence mechanism got further reinforced. It was during this very year that our country has successfully accomplished the Nuclear Triad, which means we are now armed with nuclear capabilities-in water, on land and in the sky as well. Daughters of the country have done her proud by circumnavigating the globe through the Navika Sagar Parikrama. India's first inland waterway was launched in Varanasi. This has laid the foundation of a new revolution in the waterways sector. The longest rail-road bridge, Bogibeel Bridge was dedicated to the Nation- Sikkim's first & India's hundredth airport, Pakyong commenced operations. India scripted a thumping win in the under- 19 Cricket World Cup and the Blind Cricket World Cup. This time, India clinched a large number of medals in the Asian Games.

India also performed very well in the Para Asian Games too. By the way, if I continue enumerating examples of the Purusharth, the character & the mettle of Indians, or those of our collective endeavour, this episode of Mann Ki Baat will go on and on, perhaps to the point when 2019 makes an entry! And all this has been possible due to the relentless efforts of a 130 crore countrymen. I sincerely hope that India's journey on the path of advancement & progress continues through 2019 too. Taking her to newer heights with her inner strengths.

My dear countrymen, this December we had to bear the loss of some extraordinary, exemplary countrymen. On the 19th of December, Dr. Jayachandran passed away in Chennai. People fondly called him 'Makkal Maaruthuvar' since he had a special place in their hearts. Dr. Jayachandran was known for his efforts of making the most economical treatment possible available to the poor. People tell us that he would be ever ready & eager, when it came to treatment of patients. In the case of elderly patients, he would even bear the cost of their travelling to and fro. On the betterindia.com website, I have read about many of his endeavours that serve as an inspiration to society.

On similar lines, on the 25th of December, I learnt of the loss of Sulagitti Narsamma in Karnataka. Sulagitti Narsamma was a midwife, aiding pregnant women during childbirth. In Karnataka, especially in far-off, remote places, thousands of women availed of her services. In the beginning of this year, she was honoured with a Padma Shri. There are many exemplary personalities such as Dr. Jaya Chandran and Sulagitti Narsamma, who dedicated their lives to the welfare of all in society. Since we are referring to healthcare, I would like to mention the social endeavour of doctors in Bijnor, Uttar Pradesh. Recently, I was told by some of our party workers that a few young doctors in the town set up camps offering free treatment for the under privileged. Every month, the Heart Lungs Critical Centre there organizes such camps, where free diagnosis and treatment for a host of ailments is done. Every month, hundreds of poor patients are benefitting from these camps. The dedication of these doctor friends engaged in selfless service is truly worthy of praise. Today, I'm saying it with pride that it was collective efforts that made the 'Swachh Bharat Mission' a successful campaign. I was told that a few days ago, in Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, over three lakh people came together to work for the sanitation campaign.

In this 'Mahayagya', grand undertaking, the Municipal Corporation, voluntary bodies, School- College students, the people of Jabalpur; in fact everyone participated with enthusiasm & Zest. I just referred to the betterindia.com, where I got to read about Dr. Jaya Chandran. Whenever I get the opportunity, I visit the better India website and try to know more about such shining, inspiring deeds. I am glad to observe that these days, there are many websites apprising us of inspiring life- stories of such remarkable gems. Just as the poitiveindia.com is doing great work in spreading positivity and infusing more sensitivity into society. Similarly, success stories of young innovators & entrepreneurs are women beautifully on yourstory.com. In about one of our daughters from Kashmir who won a gold medal in a Karate Championship in Korea. Hanaya is 12 years old and lives in Anantnag, Kashmir. Hanaya trained hard in Karate with perseverance & fervor, studied its nuances and proved herself. On behalf of all countrymen, I wish her a bright future. Best wishes and blessings to Hanaya. Similarly, the media discussed extensively about the 16 year old Rajani. You too must have read it. Rajani has won a gold medal at the Junior Women's Boxing Championship. The moment Rajani won the medal she rushed to a nearby milk stall & drank a glass of milk. After that, she wrapped a cloth around the medal & kept it in a bag. You must be wondering why Rajani did that ! She did it in honour of her father Jasmer Singh ji who sells lassi, at a stall in Panipat. According to Rajani, her father has sacrificed a lot, undergone hardships to help her reach where she is. Early every morning, Jasmer Singh used to leave for work before Rajani and her siblings woke up. When Rajani approached her father, expressing her wish to learn boxing, he encouraged her, arranging for whatever possible resources that he could. Rajani had to start her training in boxing the same way, you can easily learn the Sanskrit language sitting at home through samskritabharati.in. Can we join hands in one endeavour?.. Let us share such websites amongst ourselves. Let's come together to make positivity viral.

I do believe that by doing so more and more people will get to know about our heroes who brought a change in society. Spreading negativity is fairly easy. But some really good work is being done around us, in our society. And all this has been possible through the collective efforts of a 130 crore countrymen.

Sports has its own significance in every society. When a game is being played, the spectators too experience a rush of energy in their beings. We observe name, fame and laurels when it comes to sportspersons. But, at times, in the background, there exist many things that are much higher, much greater than the world of sports. Let me tell you with old gloves, since those days, the family was not too well, financially. Despite so many hurdles, Rajani did not lose heart & went ahead with her training in boxing. She has won a medal in Serbia too. My best wishes and blessings to Rajani. I also congratulate her parents Jasmer Singh ji and Usha Rani Ji for supporting & encouraging Rajani. This very month, 20 year old Vedangi Kulkarni from Pune became the fastest Asian to traverse the globe riding a bicycle. She rode for 159 days, covering around 300 kilometres every day. Just imagine... 300 kms of cycling every day ! Her passion for cycling is indeed commendable. Don't news of such achievements, such accomplishments inspire us? Especially my young friends, when we hear about such feats, we derive inspiration to touch heights despite obstacles.

If your resolve is strong, if your fervor, your enthusiasm is strong nation. In Europe, political ideas laid the foundation of nation but in case of India, religion would be the basis of national integration. It is not a particular religion that would assist in attaining the national consciousness but all religion as a whole would serve as a base for national unity because spirituality runs in the blood of all Indians and even in past Indians have already proved the idea of unity in diversity.

Reverberating his brilliance at, he awakened the world about Hinduism. The global youth in 21st century is facing numerous challenges i. e. From identity crisis to financial burdens, from parochial social norms to challenges of a multicultural social system. Vivekananda had an important message for the youth of today. It was the strength of human mind and compassion in our hearts. The Vivekananda's philosophy 'Jeva is Seva' was his fundamental mantra which became bedrock of modern Indian intellectual thoughts reflected from Mahatma Gandhi to our current Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The Mahatma once wrote "I have gone through Swami Vivekananda's works very thoroughly, and after having gone through them, the love that I had for my country became a thousand-fold. His writings need no introduction from anybody. They make their own irresistible appeal." Swami Vivekananda shaped the independent Indian thought and contributed as a spiritual precursor of India's freedom movement, this contribution was penned down by Valentine Chirol, the author of the modern Indian nation and a basic feature of the Indian freedom struggle.

The massive support for the democratic rights is another significant contribution of Swami Vivekananda to nation which is still relevant in many ways. His ideas on liberty of thought and expression are path shower in the present circumstances in which the independent voice of media persons, RTI activists and independent writers is encumbered by state authorities

TEACHINGS OF SWAMI VIVEKANANDA

- ◆ Our first duty is not to hate ourselves; because to advance we must have faith in ourselves first and then in God. He who has no faith in himself can never have faith in God.
- ◆ Every duty is holy, and devotion to duty is the highest form of worship of God.
- ◆ That society is the greatest, where the highest truths become practical.
- ◆ Faith, faith, faith in ourselves, faith in God - this is the secret of greatness... Have faith in yourselves, and stand up on that faith and be strong; that is what we need.
- ◆ The Hindus were bold, to their credit be it said, bold thinkers in all their ideas, so bold that one spark of their thought frightens the so-called bold thinkers of the West.
- ◆ In my opinion, a race must first cultivate a great respect for motherhood, through the sanctification and inviolability of marriage.
- ◆ Sita is the name in India for everything that is good, pure, and holy; everything that in woman we call woman.
- ◆ Renunciation and service are the twin ideals of India. Intensify here in these channels and the rest will take care of itself.
- ◆ My ideal indeed can be put into a few words and that is: to preach unto mankind their divinity, and how to make it manifest in every movement of life.
- ◆ My whole ambition in life is to set in motion a machinery which will bring noble ideas to the door of everybody, and then let men and women settle their own fate. Let them know what our forefathers as well as other nations have thought on the most momentous questions of life. Let them see specially what others are doing now, and then decide. We are to put the chemicals together, the crystallisation will be done by nature according to her laws.
- ◆ Truth is my God, the universe my country.
- ◆ I am proud to belong to a religion which has taught the world both tolerance and universal acceptance. We believe not only in universal toleration, but we accept all religions as true. I am proud to belong to a nation which has sheltered the persecuted and the refugees of all religions and all nations of the earth. I am proud to tell you that we have gathered in our bosom the purest remnant of the Israelites, who came to Southern India and took refuge with us in the very year in which their holy temple was shattered to pieces by Roman tyranny. I am proud to belong to the religion which has sheltered and is still fostering the remnant of the grand Zoroastrian nation.
- ◆ Our watchword, then, will be acceptance, and not exclusion. Not only toleration... I believe in acceptance. Why should I tolerate? Toleration means that I think that you are wrong and I am just allowing you to live. Is it not a blasphemy to think that you and I are allowing others to live?
- ◆ Religions of the world have become lifeless mockeries. What the world wants is character. The world is in need of those whose life is one burning love, selfless. That love will make every word tell like thunderbolt.
- ◆ The religion of the Vedanta can satisfy the demands of the scientific world, by referring it to the highest generalisation and to the law of evolution. That the explanation of a thing comes from within itself is still more completely satisfied by Vedanta. The Brahman, the God of the Vedanta, has nothing outside of Himself; nothing at all.
- ◆ One idea that I see clear as daylight is that misery is caused by ignorance and nothing else. Who will give the world light? Sacrifice in the past has been the Law, it will be, alas, for ages to come. The earth's bravest and best will have to sacrifice themselves for the good of many, for the welfare of all. Buddhas by the hundred are necessary with eternal love and pity.
- ◆ Would to God that all men were so constituted that in their minds all these elements of philosophy, mysticism, emotion, and of work were equally present in full! That is the ideal, my ideal of a perfect man.
- ◆ The ideal of womanhood in India is motherhood - that marvelous, unselfish, all-suffering, ever-forgiving mother.

On Education

- ◆ Education is the manifestation of the perfection already in man.
- ◆ By education I do not mean the present system, but something in the line of positive teaching. Mere book-learning won't do. We want that education by which character is formed, strength of mind is increased, the intellect is expanded, and by which one can stand on one's own feet.
- ◆ The education which does not help the common mass of people to equip themselves for the struggle for life, which does not bring out strength of character, a spirit of philanthropy, and the courage of a lion-is it worth the name? Real education is that which enables one to stand on one's own legs.
- ◆ By work alone men may get to where Buddha got largely by meditation or Christ by prayer.

"If I Love Myself Despite My Infinite Faults, How Can I Hate Anyone at the Glimpse of a Few Faults."

Indian Unrest. He described Vivekananda's teachings as one of the major causes of nationalist movement in India.

Relevance of Vivekananda today

The youth of the day are mostly second generation learners who deal with challenges of life in a pragmatic manner; they unlike their predecessors are better equipped to question the power structures of society. However, the dilemmas facing them like employment, social recognition and the larger question of belongingness to a particular nation are still pertinent. This makes the human resources available with this great nation vulnerable to factional propaganda Swami Vivekananda envisioned the nation as a condensed whole where employment will be a medium to serve others rather than only being a source of income.

Vivekananda argues that our existence is to serve the whole society and he goes on to create a philosophy to empower the individual to the same. His ideas can best be described as that of a karmayogi. The citizen of India can learn a great deal from his messages. To start with, firm determination and dedication to one's goal is a prerequisite to achieve individual aspirations as well as social progress.

Vivekananda's most important message to the Indians in 21st century is- self belief. He and societal forces. Vivekananda's call for greater equality and annihilation of caste and class divisions may prove a boon to all countrymen who are badly shackled in the clutches of derogatory forms of caste and class hierarchical system in our country.

According to Vivekananda, toleration does not guarantee harmony, it creates less conflicting societies. However, compassion guarantees consensus and harmony if followed in true spirit. In day to day life this message can be a guide to public policy and democratization in society. We often see news about intolerance towards other cultures of the world, in this regard Vivekananda was more modern than modernity as he claimed that all religions are true and supremacy of one over the other shall not demean oriental religions.

Nation and Person

Swami Vivekananda imagined a nation as a consolidated entity of empowered human beings, where progress meant the ability to help the downtrodden and development meant material achievements with a spiritual aim. His idea of a nation was a 'condensed' entity which was always ready for the service of humanity the world over. Individual consciousness was the most important factor in his analysis of the nation. For him, conscience is the voice of god

"All the powers in the universe are already ours. It is we who we have put our hands before our eyes and cry that it is dark."

challenged the supremacy of the west and proved at the congress of religions 1893 that Hinduism is the most ancient and complete philosophy of life. This speech was also a reality check to the founding principles of modernity which disempowered the individual by putting production before person. His message was loud and clear that compassion and love are the means to reach social and global harmony and further he added that without spiritual awakening economic empowerment will be a half hearted enterprise. The Vedantic teachings enlighten the west on the utility of religion as a rational and humanistic enterprise. His messages were foundation of which can never be wrong. Vivekananda had a strong conviction in human abilities; he believed that the human mind is the most powerful creation of god. But at the same time he was aware of the dichotomy between reason and passion. He saw the conflicts in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century as a result of misinterpretation of religion, faith, and human rationality. He never aimed to superficially argue the oriental perspectives rather he wished to awaken the western worlds about their limited world view. This is why he stated "In judging others we always judge them by our own

General Ability Test

Selecting Words

Directions: In the following passage, at certain points you are given a choice of four words marked (a), (b), (c) and (d), one of which fits the meaning of the passage. Choose the best word out of the four. Mark the letter, viz., (a), (b), (c) or (d), relating to this word on your Answer Sheet. Examples K and L have been solved for you.

K

The (a) boy (b) horse (c) dog (d) cow was in the school in Shimla.

(a) She (b) It (c) He (d) Her was homesick.

Explanation: Out of the list given in item K, only, 'boy' is the correct answer because usually, a boy, and not a horse, a dog or a cow, attends school. So '(a)' is to be marked on the Answer Sheet for item K, A boy is usually referred to as 'he, so for item L, '(c)' is the correct answer. Notice that to solve the first item K you have to read the rest of the sentence and then see what fits best.

Day 1: Stage I Screening Test (Intelligence Test) - It includes the Intelligence Test which checks the logical or analytical aptitude of the candidate, and the Picture Perception and Discussion test which checks how you describe a picture, your command over language, and your overall performance during discussions and tasks.

Those who pass Stage I have to take the Stage II test.

Day 2: Stage II Psychological Test - It includes different psychological tests, group tasks and personal interview. You'll be expected to have the 15 Officer Like Qualities (OLQs) to clear this stage.

Day 2 to 4: Stage II Interview - The interviewing officer is a senior and experienced officer of the armed forces and tries to discern whether you are suited for the life of an army officer or not. Lying and false pretences can go against you in this interview. Be honest. Your general knowledge and awareness about your strength can be big assets to clear this stage.

Day 3 and 4: Stage II Ground Testing Officer (GTO) Test - It includes two group discussions, Group Planning Exercise (GPE) (where group members have to come up with a solution for the given problem), Group Obstacle Race, Progressive Group Task (PGT) (where the group needs to clear obstacles with the help of props like ropes or planks), Half Group Task (where a group is divided into two and then, has to complete the tasks), Lecturette (where candidates have to speak on a topic for 3 minutes), Command Task (where a candidate has to lead two subordinates from his group across a short obstacle on his own), Individual Obstacle (where an individual has to cover ten obstacles in a space of 3 minutes), and Final Group Task (which is similar to the PGT but only lasts for 5-10 minutes).

Day 5: Stage II Conference - During this stage, all the board members and three assessors meet to discuss the results of individual assessments of a candidate and his strengths and weaknesses in detail. Candidates with higher intelligence rating receive extra credit here. Results are finalized on this day and communicated to the candidates.

National Defence Academy (NDA)

If you are interested in joining the Indian Army, Navy or Air Force, you can do so directly after Class 12. The National Defence Academy near Pune is the Joint Services Academy where cadets of all the three services train together before joining their respective academies for further training.

To join NDA, you need to appear for its entrance exam which is conducted by the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC), New Delhi twice a year. Only unmarried candidates between the ages of 16 ½ to 19½ yrs are eligible to write the exam. The exam consists of two papers:

- Paper 1: Mathematics (for 300 marks), and
- Paper 2: General Ability Test (which has two sections: English worth 200 marks, and GK worth 400 marks)

The exam contains objective-type questions and has a duration of 3 hours or 180 minutes.

If you clear the written exam, you'll have to appear for the Services Selection Board (SSB) or Air Force Selection Board (AFSB) interviews. The SSB Interview process for NDA is same as the one mentioned above for the technical entry in Indian Army.

Those who clear the 5-day SSB or AFSB interview process will also have to undergo the medical examination and be declared fit for the job.

B.Arch (Bachelor of Architecture)

You can take the JEE Mains Paper 2 exam to get admission in the under-graduate Architecture course offered by the NITs, and centrally funded government institutes. UCEED is a computer-based test and has one question paper which has a duration of three hours. It has three sections:

- Multiple Select Questions (MSQ) where each question can have one or more correct answers out of the four given choices.
- Multiple Choice Questions (MCQ) where each question has only one correct answer out of the four given choices.

Besides the IITs, many other institutes that accept the UCEED scores include Nirma University, Ahmedabad; VIT University, Vellore; UPES, Dehradun; Lovely Professional University, Phagwara, Punjab; Delhi Technological University, Delhi; ARCH College of Design and Business, Jaipur; and U.P. Institute of Design, Noida.

National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad

- The first stage is the Design Aptitude Test (DAT) which is an offline written exam for 100 marks. The paper has a duration of 3 hours during which students have to solve 64 MCQs and 3 subjective questions. Those who clear this exam are called for the second stage of the selection process.
- The second stage is a Studio Test worth 100 marks. It includes drawing or sketching, handicraft modelling, group discussions and presentations. Some of the important aspects of this exam are 3D Modelling, Making Portfolios, Observation Tests, Material Manipulation, and Creative Thinking. If you clear the Studio Test, you will be immediately called for the Interview.
- The third stage or the Interview is conducted at the same centre. This is the final round of the NID selection process.

National Institute of Fashion Technology

The NIFT entrance exam is conducted in three parts. Students first have to appear for the 3-hour long Creative Ability Test (CAT), followed by a 2-hour long General Ability Test (GAT). The final stage for the B.Des course is a Situation Test.

NIFT has its headquarter in Delhi but it has several centres across India, including Bengaluru, Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Gandhinagar, Hyderabad, Jodhpur, Kangra, Kannur, Kolkata, Mumbai, Patna, Raebareli, Shillong and Srinagar.

Besides, there are several other reputed institutes that offer B.Des courses, such as Symbiosis Institute of Design, Pune; and Pearl Academy of Fashion Management, Jaipur.

B.Sc (Bachelor of Science) or B.C.A (Bachelor in Computer Application)

You can opt for a BCA or BCS (Bachelor of Computer Science) course which leads to MCA or MCS courses. These courses open up careers in the field of software development, programming, network administration, hardware development or ITES (Information Technology Enabled Services). Banks and government departments advertise jobs for candidates with MCS or MCA degree from time-to-time. Besides, the education sector and a number of private firms also absorb software developers and IT experts at various levels.

B.Sc courses open a wide array of job options. You can do M.Sc later, write the NET (National Eligibility Test) exam and become a lecturer. You may also do basic teacher training for international teaching jobs.

There is lot more you can do as a Bachelor in Science besides teaching. You can apply for the position of Commercial Inspector/ Supervisor, Traffic Inspector/ Supervisor and Ticket Collector in Indian Railways; clerical and Probationary Officer (PO) positions in the banking sector; civil services, defence jobs, and other government and private sector jobs.

Looking for Skill-Based Training?

In case, you feel that you chose the wrong stream in Class 11th and would like to go for a career in the film production or TV show production or perhaps, Hotel Management, it is not too late. You can still choose to do a relevant degree course and carve out a niche in the career of your choice.

Under the Skill India programme, the government is also running several schemes to train the youth in different industry-related skills to increase their employability. Some of these initiatives include:

Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY)

This is the flagship scheme of the Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship (MSDE). You may find the PMKY training centre near your home at: <http://www.pmkvyofficial.org/find-a-training-centre.aspx>

You can also search the training centre by the job roles you aspire for or the sector you want to join. Some of the sectors for which you can do training from these centres include Agriculture, Apparel, Automotive, Beauty and Wellness, Electronics and Hardware, Food Processing, Retail, Power, Telecom and many others.

Udaan

This is a Special Industry Initiative (SII) for the youth of Jammu & Kashmir. It is run by the Ministry of Home Affairs and implemented by the National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC). If you are from J&K, you can look forward to train under the Udaan scheme after completing your 3-year Diploma or Degree program for three to six months and get good job opportunities.

The boarding and lodging facilities during the training period are provided by the Udaan corporate. One-way travel costs are also reimbursed. Those who get selected for the training programmes get a stipend for the duration of the programme.

International Skill Training

India International Skill Centres (IISCs) set up by the NSDC offer world-class skill training and certification programmes. If you want to go abroad, these programmes can help you prepare for overseas jobs. The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) also offers the Pre-Departure Orientation Training (PDOT) under its Pravasi Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PKVY).

The One-Day PDOT program offers country-specific orientation, brushing up language skills and some Digital Literacy modules. If you are interested in working in another country, it might be a good idea to visit your nearest IISC once.

Several private-sector training institutes and educational institutions also offer skill-based Diploma or Degree programmes that can help you earn good money in the future.

How to decide which career suits you the best?

Many students are confused about what careers they should opt for. In such a case, taking a Career Aptitude Test can be highly beneficial for you. In case you are a DIY (Do It Yourself) type, you should write down:

- Your Personal Strengths
- Your Personal Weaknesses
- Activities and Subjects You Love To Do
- Work Environment and Life Style You Would Like
- Personal Values Close to Your Heart

Once you have these ready, research different types of careers and see which ones cover most of the points in your list. For example, if you feel strongly for people who suffer even though they have done nothing wrong, you might want to be a lawyer. On the other hand, you might feel attracted to high-tech gadgets and smartphones and wonder how they work. In this case, you might go for mobile software or hardware courses or app development courses.

Google for 'list of careers in India' to see thousands of options open for you.

without bounds, all your hurdles halt in their tracks. Hardships can never turn into obstacles. When we come to know of such examples, we too feel inspired every moment of our life.

My dear countrymen, the month of January ushers in many festivals filled with hope & joy- such as Lohri, Pongal, Makr Sankranti, Uttarayan, Magh Bihu, Maaghi; on the occasion of these festivities, the length & breadth of India will be replete... with the verve of traditional dances at places, the embers of Lohri symbolizing the joy of a bountiful harvest at others. Somewhere the skies dotted with colourful flying kites, elsewhere the fulfilled air of a mela or carnival. The spirit of Sports & games will come to the fore... and at places, people will joyfully feed each other til & gur... sesame & jaggery... people will be heard exchanging the greeting phrase 'Tilgurghyaaanigorgor bola'!

All these festivals may carry different names but the underlying or inherent feeling of celebrating them is singular - these are harvest festivals and somewhere or the other are connected with crops and farming, connected with the farmer, with the village and with our barns. It is during this period that the sun enters Uttarayan due to Northward movement of the earth on the celestial sphere and enters the Makardasha. It is during this period that days begin to lengthen and the winter harvesting of our crops begins. Best wishes to our food providers, the farming brothers and sisters.

Our festivals are replete with fragrance of the essence of Unity in Diversity and the spirit of One India Great India. We can witness how closely our festivals are interlinked with nature. In Indian culture society and nature are indistinguishable, in our culture the person and his environment are considered in totality. A great example of the inter connection between us and Nature is the calendar based on our festivals. It comprises festivals all around the year as well as the movements of the celestial bodies. This traditional calendar depicts our bonding with natural and astronomical events. The lunar and solar Calendars based on the movement of earth with respect to moon and sun decide the occurrence and dates of our festivals. It is also dependant on the fact which calendar you follow. In many regions the position of the planetary constellations determines the occurrence and celebration of festivals. Gudi Padva, Chettichand, Ugadi and others are all celebrated according to the lunar Calendar, whereas Tamil PutanduVishnu, Baisakh, Baisakhi, PoilaBoisakh, Bihu are all celebrated in accordance with solar calendar.

The sagacity of conserving rivers and water is inherently reflected in many of our festivals. Chhath festival is associated with the worship of the sun, rivers and ponds. Millions of people take a dip in the holy rivers on the occasion of Makar Sankranti. Our festivals, impart to us many social values. On the one hand, where they have mythological significance, on the other, every festival quite easily in itself teaches the important lesson of life - the value of staying together, imbued with a feeling of brotherhood. I wish all of you a great year 2019 and do hope that you all to enjoy the oncoming festive season. Do share the photographs taken on these festivals with one another so that everyone can witness the diversity of India and the beauty of Indian culture.

My dear countrymen, there is an abundance of events in our culture, of which we can be proud and display them in the entire world with pride - and one of them is the Kumbh Mela. You must have heard a lot about Kumbh. Even in films, a lot is exhibited regarding its grandeur and magnificence and most truly so, the dimensions of Kumbh are vast - supremely divine, as much magnificent. People from all over the country and around the world come and participate in the Kumbh. In the Kumbh Mela, there is a tidal upsurge of faith and reverence. Millions and millions of people from India and around the world congregate at one place.

The tradition of Kumbh has bloomed and flourished as part of our great cultural heritage. This time the world famous Kumbh Mela is going to be held in Prayagraj from January 15, and many of you might be waiting eagerly for it to take place. The process of Sant-Mahatmas converging at the Kumbh Mela has already started. It is a measure of its global importance that last year UNESCO has marked Kumbh Mela in the list of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. A few days ago the Ambassadors of many countries witnessed for themselves the preparations for Kumbh. The national flags of many countries were together hoisted at the Kumbh. The festival of Kumbh, to be organized in Prayagraj, is expected to have footfalls from more than 150 countries; the divinity emanating from Kumbh will spread the colours of India's splendour throughout the world.

Kumbh Mela is also a huge medium of self discovery, where every visitor experiences a unique feeling and learns to look more and more people feel inspired to go to Kumbh.

May this Kumbh of Spirituality become Mahakumbh of Indian Philosophy.

May this Kumbh of faith also become Mahakumbh of nationalism.

And a Mahakumbh of National integration

May this Kumbh of the devotees also become Mahakumbh of global tourists.

May this Kumbh of aesthetics also become the Mahakumbh of creativity.

My dear countrymen, there is a lot of curiosity regarding the celebration of Republic Day on 26th January, when we remember those great men who gave us our Constitution. This year we are celebrating the 150th birth anniversary of revered Bapu. We are fortunate that South African President Mr. Cyril Ramaphosa is going to grace the Republic Day celebrations as chief guest. Our revered Bapu and South Africa at the worldly things from a spiritual perspective. This can be a huge learning experience especially for the youth. I myself went to Prayagraj a few days ago and saw that the preparations for the Kumbh were progressing on a war footing. People of Prayagraj are also very enthusiastic about the Kumbh. I inaugurated the Integrated Command & Control Center at the Kumbh which will be of great benefit to the devotees.

This time much emphasis is being laid on cleanliness during Kumbh. If during the course of this event sanitation prevails along with reverence, then it will lead to a positive message reaching far and wide. This time every devotee will be able to have a darshan of the pious Akshayavat after the holy dip in the confluence. This great symbol of people's faith was locked up in the fort for hundreds of years, due to which the devotees despite a deep seated desire could not get a glimpse of. Now the entrance gate of Akshayavat have been opened for everyone. I urge all of you to share different aspects of Kumbh and photos on social media when you go to Kumbh so that shared an unbreakable bond. It was South Africa, where Mohan transformed into the 'Mahatma'. It was in South Africa, where Mahatma Gandhi had started his first Satyagraha and stood rock steady in protest of apartheid. He also founded the Phoenix and Tolstoy Farms, from where the demand for peace and justice echoed to the whole world. The year 2018 is also being celebrated as Birth centenary of Nelson Mandela, also known as 'Madiba'. We all know that Nelson Mandela was the role model of struggle against racism all over the world and who was the inspiration for Mandela? He derived inspiration and endurance for spending many years in jail from Bapu himself. Mandela said this about Bapu - "Mahatma is an integral part of our history, because it was here that he used his first experiment with truth; It was here, That he had displayed a great deal of determination for justice; It was here, he developed the philosophy of his satyagraha and his methods of struggle. "Mandela used to consider Bapu as his role model. Both Bapu and Mandela are not only sources of inspiration for the entire world, but their ideals have always encouraged us to create a society full of love and compassion.

MANN KI BAAT...

My dear countrymen, a few days ago, a DGP conference was held at Kevdia on the banks of Narbada in Gujarat, where the world's highest statue 'Statue of Unity' is situated, there I had a meaningful discussion with the top policemen of the country. What kind of steps should be taken to strengthen the security of the country and that of the countrymen, was discussed in detail. At the same conference, I also announced the awarding of 'Sardar Patel Award' for National Integration to be given to those who have contributed for national unity in any form. Sardar Patel dedicated his entire life for the unity of the country. He always remained engaged in keeping India's integrity intact. Sardar Saheb believed that the power of India lay in the diversity of the land. It is our way of paying homage to Sardar Patel's aspirations through this award for National Integration.

My dear countrymen, January 13 is the date of the sacred festival observed in honour of Guru Gobind Singh ji's birth anniversary. Guru Gobind Singh Ji was born in Patna. For most of his life, his work was centred in North India and he sacrificed his life in Nanded, Maharashtra. His birth place was Patna, Karmabhoomi was north India and the last moments were spent in Nanded. In a way, entire India received his blessings. A glimpse of his life span reflects a glimpse of the entire India. After the martyrdom of his father Shri Guru Tegh Bahadurji, Guru Gobind Singh Ji attained the hallowed position of the Guru at a tender age of nine years. Guru Gobind Singh ji had inherited courage to fight for justice from the legacy of Sikh Gurus. He was bestowed with a quiet and simple personality, but whenever, an attempt was made to suppress the voice of the poor and the weak, or injustice was done to them, then Guru Gobind Singh ji raised his voice firmly for the poor and the weak and therefore it is said -

"I can make one fight against one hundred and fifteen thousands,

I can make the sparrow fight against the hawk

That be the reason that Gobindsingh be my name."

He used to preach that strength cannot be demonstrated by fighting against the weaker sections. Shri Gobind Singh Ji believed that the biggest service is to alleviate human suffering. He was a divine figure full of heroism, valor, courage, sacrifice and devotion. He had beatific knowledge of both weapons and Shastras. He was an archer, and a pundit of Gurmukhi, Braj Bhasha, Sanskrit, Persian, Hindi and Urdu and many other languages. I once again bow paying my obeisance to Shri Guru Gobind Singh ji.

My dear countrymen, there are many good events happening in the country, which are not widely discussed. Such a unique effort is being attempted by F.S.S.A.I viz Food Safety and Standard Authority of India. Many programs are being organized across the country in celebration of the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. In this regard F.S. A.A.I. is engaged in promoting good eating or Safe and Healthy Diet habits. Under the aegis of "Eat Right India" campaign, "Swasth Bharat" trips are being carried out across the country. These campaigns will last till Jan 27th. At times, government organizations are tagged as a regulator, but it is commendable that F.S.A.A.I has been working beyond this brief for public awareness and public education. A clean and healthy India will spell a prosperous India also. Nutritious food is most essential for good health. In this context, I extend hearty greetings to F.S.S.A.I for this initiative. I urge you to the utmost, let's join this initiative. You should participate in this initiative and especially I urge you to make you children witness these campaigns. The education regarding importance of food is essential right from childhood.

My dear countrymen, this is the last episode of the year 2018, we will meet again in 2019, and will engage in another episode of Mann Ki Baat. Whether it is the life of a person, life of a nation, or the lifespan of a society, inspiration, is the basis of progress. Come, imbued with renewed inspiration, renewed zeal, renewed resolution, new accomplishments, loftier goals - let's move on, keep moving, change oneself and change the country too.

Thank you very much.

ideals. That is not as it should be. Everyone must be judged according to his own ideal, and not by that of anyone else." In the tune of following statement once he said that "Social life in the West is like a peal of laughter, but underneath it is a wail. The whole thing ends in a sob. The fun and frivolity are all on the surface; really, it is full of tragic intensity. Here it is sad and gloomy on the outside, but underneath are detachment and merriment".

Vivekananda saw national welfare emanating from spiritual welfare, as he knew that the

for our national welfare, we must first seek out at the present day all the spiritual forces of the race, as was done in days of yore and will be done in all times to come". In the line of above said

"Take Risks in Your Life. If You Win, You Can Lead, If You Lose, You Can Guide."

national character is not built in a day, it is shaped by history, religion, culture and various other constituents. He argued, arguments once he said that "A nation is advanced in proportion as education and intelligence spread among the masses". He always wanted state to work for public welfare by introducing and implementing the people friendly economic and social policies.

Conclusion

Swami Vivekananda, a great philosopher of renaissance tradition of Indian political thought and founder of Ramakrishna Mission will always be remembered for his unforgettable contribution to the nation. He is hugely credited with introduction of true face of Hinduism to the western world and spreading awareness among Indians about the greatness of Indian civilization. He was the key figure during colonial India but his approach to Indian culture and revival of the nation, is beyond the confinement of time. His address to the youngsters, support for democratic rights, brushing Vedantic philosophy and presenting it in the form of neo-Vedanta philosophy, religion as the basis of national unity, breaking of caste and class divisions, universal harmony, appeal to people for the devotion to the society will lead a way to Indian state to find out the solution of emerging problems in 21st century and they will always remain a guiding force for the upcoming generations. After all, he did not only wish for the resurgent India but provided a roadmap to turn it into a strong and independent nation. Vivekananda is such an inspiration to all Indians and people across the globe and will remain so for indefinite time.
