GROWING CONSUMER AWARENESS

Dr. Sheetal Kapoor

"If you make customers unhappy in the physical world, they might each tell six friends. If you make customers unhappy on the internet, they can each tell 6,000"- Jeff Bezos (Founder and CEO, Amazon)

Consumerism, significance of consumers in the market, growing awareness among consumers are some contemporary landmarks in the growth of the consumer movement in India. As consumers we are victims of many unfair and unethical practices adopted by the industry and the business. We come across many glitches related to defective goods, deficiency in service, food adulteration, spurious goods, hoarding, use of deceptive and fractional weights, late deliveries, variations in the contents of the pack, poor after sales service, misleading advertisements, hidden price components, price discrimination, ATM and credit card frauds, financial frauds, real estate problems and problems related to public utilities. As the sellors and traders do not act responsibly it is required to inculcate this habit of self-help amongst consumers and educate them about their consumer rights and responsibilities so that they are vigilant while shopping.

The New Consumer Protection Bill, 2018 envisages to speed up the consumer disputes redress mechanism. By establishing Central Consumer Protection Authority, it would help in protection of consumer rights of common man by providing quick, in expensive and simple redress of their grievances, prevent unfair trade practices. The New Bill also would incorporate the concept of product liability in consumer protection and enable mediation as an Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) arrangement. Keeping into account the growing digital market in India and the asymmetry of knowledge amongst the various stakeholders in India, it is hoped that the new Consumer Protection Act would overcome the limitations of the existing law and it would give a big boost to the consumer movement.

With the Indian economy and Indian industry growing leaps and bounds and with the changing market environment the Bureau of Indian Standards BIS Act, 2016 has been promulgated. BIS has also developed a consumer-friendly App called CARE, which can be used to access the information and lodge a complaint against an ISI marked product/ Hallmarked item. In order to protect the rights and interests of the consumers and promotion of uniformity and standardization of business practices and transactions in the real estate sector the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 has been passed. INGRAM -Integrated Grievance Redressal Mechanism portal brings all stakeholders under a single platform. On one hand the National Consumer Helpline with its toll free number 1800-11-4000 or 14404 provides advice and guidance and empowers consumers. A smart consumer application has been launched to enable the consumer to scan bar codes and get all the details about the product.

Consumers International announced the theme for World Consumer Rights Day 2019 to be 'Trusted Smart Products'. Moreover, "Building a Digital World Consumers Can Trust" was the theme adopted by Consumers International (CI) earlier to help make consumers aware about their rights and redressal mechanism when they do online shopping. While doing online shopping consumers should use strong passwords, take complete information about the e-portal, find out about the e-merchant's privacy policy, keep personal information private, shop only with known e-merchants and review monthly bank and credit card details.

Till now 24-pro consumer Acts have been enacted to control buyer-seller relations in the market place. The Department of Consumer Affairs under the

CAREER THROUGH CRICKET

Shree Parkash Sharma

Playing cricket is a favourite pastime in India. It is intensively and religiously played not only by its professional players but also by others across the country.

The history of cricket in India dates back to the British period. The colonial period in India witnessed the growth of cricket in India. It is believed that cricket was brought in India by the European merchant sailors during the 18th century and erstwhile Calcutta is credited with establishment of the first ever cricket club in 1792. But India succeeded playing its first Test match only in 1932 at Lord's in London and since then we have been making and breaking records in the world.

PREREQUISITE SKILLS FOR BECOMING A CRICKETER

In the present age of the cut-throat-competition, a career in cricket and the success as a cricket player are fraught with challenges. To survive and succeed in this war-like situation, a prospective cricket player must have the following professional qualities to survive as one of the most successful players of cricket-

- He must be very good sportsman and natural athlete, and most importantly, hard working and with never - say- die attitude.
- Adaptability to accept odd circumstances of international cricket like those of culture, cuisine, creed, language, weather, unfavourable audiences and fan followers of the foreign countries.

- Cricket is a dynamic sport where the players are expected to bowl, bat and field for hours and for the perfection of which what you need most is the very good physical fitness and mental stoicism.
- Excellently skilled in athleticism, fitness, attitude, batting, bowling and fielding.
- The aspiring player must be proficient in these eight segments of cricket - athleticism, fitness, skill to brave the tense circumstances, fielding, running between the wickets, bowling in the danger zone, dealing with balls accurately to duck being out and, most importantly, perspicacity of taking on - the - spot - decision.

- An aspirant must be punctual and indomitably determined to reach out to one's goal.
- Must possess talent in one or all the three aspects of cricket- bowling, batting and fielding.
- Stoic personality who braves the defeat as naturally as possible.
- Must have flair to travel across the nations of the world for playing a number of tournaments and series of the matches.
- Must have strong emotional flexibility to live apart from the family and friends for months. Nostalgic feelings ruin the performance of the players.

And he must have a sweet emotional bonding with his family and very good financial background to live the life peacefully and comfortably even if not selected for a particular series, tournament, championship or national or international visit.

BASIC INFORMATION

All the important international cricket formats are grouped into the following three categories -

1. International Test Matches
2. One Day International Matches, and
3. T20 International Matches

The domestic cricket consists of the following formats of cricket matches:

1. First Class.
2. List A and
3. T20 Matches

It does not mean that all aspiring cricket players end up succeeding as the hero players of the entire gamut of cricket formats. Majority of the prospective cricket players prepare and try to specialize themselves in a particular format or sometimes two of them. The players who want to play only T20 matches restrict themselves with T20 cricket and so join a particular T20 Premier League. However, it is another thing that these players are also chosen for playing for T20 International Cricket Matches of India.

As far as the selection of the players for the different formats of the cricket is concerned, it is the governing body of the cricket of that country which makes selection of the players. For example, BCCI (The Board of Control of Cricket in India) is

CAREER IN CRICKET - HOW TO START?

For entering the world of cricket with the ambition of making it as one's career, an aspirant has two choices. The first choice starts right from the school from where one can launch into the world of cricket. The school cricket matches pave the way for matches and tournaments played at the inter-college and university level.

We have yet another very popular choice to enter the professional cricket world which requires very hard labour. And this avenue to cricket world is called as the "Open Cricket" which is comparatively harder than those cricket matches which are played at school, college and university levels.

The Open Cricket Matches are conducted by various cricket associations which have no connection with that of school, college and university level matches.

Each district has a District Association in the country. All these District Associations further make the State Association. The District Association functions as a selection committee of the promising cricketers for the further matches at the district level. For this the District Association selection committee very minutely observes the matches of the players and on the basis of their personal performance players are chosen and the team is formed.

On the basis of the performance of the aspiring players at district level, they get the opportunity to play for their state. Further on the basis of the performance of the players at the state level, the national level selection committee makes the selection of the players for the national level team.

representation in the Ranji Trophy Team. A few states represent more than one state.

The Ranji Trophy has the competition among 28 states, Chhattisgarh being the latest addition. The players of the Ranji Trophy team are selected from the among the cream players of the 29 states and 6 Union Territories of the country. It must be kept in mind that the players from various cricket associations and cricket clubs also get the opportunity to play for the prestigious Ranji Trophy. So, the most crucial question is how to first get selected in the Ranji Trophy.

In fact, for the selection in the Ranji Trophy an aspiring player needs to undergo the following vigorous processes -

First, start playing cricket right since childhood when you are usually in your primary school and for this better it would be if you get yourself enrolled in a cricket team at local level or a local club.

Practice makes a man perfect, goes the adage and so you need to consistently practice every day and play the cricket without fail. Ensure your participation in as many cricket matches as possible. Your excellence in the school and various other tournaments and matches would enable you to get selected for the district level tournament.

A division consists of many districts. For the selection at division levels, selection trials are held at district levels the criteria of which are determined on the basis of the players' performance in the local tournaments. The inter-district tournaments are held the performance of which also gives edge to the players to play for the Ranji Trophy and national team of India as well.

The performance of the players at the Inter-divisional tournaments becomes the parameter of the selection of those players for the camps. These camps serve as the rigorous training centre of the selected players under the professional guidance of the renowned coaches of various State Associations and sometimes under the guidance of very famous retired international cricket players. These trainee players also play various tournaments which are reckoned as the entrance test of the Ranji Trophy one's state and zone.

Even if you fail to shine at these matches, presently more editions of cricket tournament are appearing which have caught the fancy of the young generation. The IPL cricket matches have now proved to be very good platform the teams of which are drawn from the Ranji Trophy teams. The Indian Premier League and T20 - limited - edition- matches were started by the BCCI in 2007-2008 for which the players are selected via auction. They play for the teams owned by franchisees. The first IPL matches were organized in the months of April and June 2008.

HOW MUCH WILL YOU BE PAID?

You may be surprised to know that personal earnings of very famous national and international cricket players go beyond millions. The cricket players are paid quite handsomely by the BCCI and this is one of the most enticing attractions of the game.

Besides, the corporate companies are also cashing in on the popularity of these players and signing off contracts with them for the promotion of their products on the audio-visual and print media. The appointment of these players as the Brand Ambassadors of various campaigns and products by both the public and private sectors is teemed with huge wealth and innumerable laurels, the parallels of which are not normally found in other games and sports.

The BCCI has divided the players into four categories of A+, A, B and C from the salary structure point of view the parameters of which make the stint of experience and last year's performance in the matches played by an individual player. The ranking of the players lasts for one year and if any debutant joins in between the year he is given the slot in the grade C. The details of the salary composition of the players are as follows -

Retainer Fee

This is the fee which is paid as per the central contract and category in which the players are kept. Players in Grades A+ are paid rupees 7 crores. The grade A players get rupees 5 crores and grade B players receive rupees 3 crores. The C grade players are entitled to get rupees 1 crore.

Match Fee

This is the fee which is paid for playing the international matches. It is the same across all the four categories of the central contract. For the appearance in every Test match rupees 1500,000 is paid as match fee. For the appearance in One Day International match it is rupees 600,000 and for each T20 match the fee paid is rupees 300, 000.

Individual Performance Bonuses

The quality of the personal performance is the yardstick of the payment of this bonus. For every century scored in Test or ODI, rupees 500,000 is paid to the players while for scoring double century in Test or ODI, INR 700,000 is paid. The 5-wicket-feat in Test, ODI or T20 attracts INR 500,000 whereas for 10 - wicket haul the payment of bonus is rupees 700,000.

The bonanza does not stop here only. In the case of a win in a Test against a team in ICC top 3 ranking, 50 percent of hike is given in the match fee of the players. Winning a Test series against ICC top 3 team, 100 per cent of more fee is paid to the players. For the victory in ICC World Cup in both ODI and T20, an increase to the tune of 300 per cent is given in the match fees.

ALL ABOUT BCCI

The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI), the national governing body of cricket in India, was set up in December 1928. It is the committee of the administrators who is assigned with the responsibility of selecting the cricket players for the matches to be played at various levels.

The BCCI consists of two-tier of selectors -

1. All India Senior Selection Committee

The responsibilities of this committee include selection of teams for all the international matches like those of Test Matches, One Day International (ODI) Matches and T20 International Matches. It also selects the players for the India A teams. Players for the teams like those of President's XI or BCCI XI are also selected by this committee. The President's XI team play cricket matches with international cricket teams which visit the country.

2. All India Junior Selection Committee

This team selects players for the formation of the following teams-

- *Under-19 Cricket
- *Under-17 Cricket
- *Under-15 Cricket

The BCCI consists of 5 members who are selected from each zone of North Zone, Central Zone, West Zone, East Zone and South Zone.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN CRICKET

Like other professions, the career in cricket is also not a bed of roses - it is a bed of woes. The aspiring players must be hundred percent dedicated to the cricket. He must stay focussed on the cricket. They say that a promising and prospective cricket player must eat, drink, sleep and live cricket.

Have you ever imagined what chemistry functions behind the mettle of a batsman when he scores a number of 4s and 6s and ends up mounting the score of single and double century in a match? Obviously the answer is so much easy - the hard and consistent labour to excel at cricket.

Sometimes, it is easy to get entry into the cricket world but very hard to survive there because the audiences' craze and fans' expectations run so wild and high that once you fail the governing body and the richest cricket body of the world which functions on the lines of a corporate organization.

All the players of the team, coaches, physiotherapists and other crew members are chosen by the BCCI for which the players need to sign a contract for a certain period, usually for a year. The BCCI also performs the task of arranging matches with the 10 major cricket-playing nations, i.e., India, Pakistan, Bangla Desh, Sri Lanka, New Zealand, South Africa, England, Australia, Zimbabwe and West Indies. The players are also paid by the BCCI which is one of the richest Sports bodies in the world with a turnover and balance sheet that matches high profit earning companies of the corporate world.

HOW ARE THE PLAYERS SELECTED FOR THE NATIONAL CRICKET TEAM?

Ranji Trophy is considered as another golden passport to the selection of the players for the national cricket team of India. It is also the most crucial stage which facilitates the entry of a prospective player into the cricket team of the country.

The Ranji Trophy, named after Ranjit Singh Ji, the first Indian cricket player and who played for England and Sussex, is the first class domestic cricket championship of India. The Ranji Trophy is also popularly called as Ranji. It was earlier known as 'Cricket Championship of India'.

The Ranji Trophy consists of the teams representing the various states of the country. So every state has its own

GROWING CONSUMER ...

Ministry of Consumer Affairs is responsible for the formulation of policies for consumer welfare in India. The 'Jago Grahak Jago' multi media campaign launched in the Year 2005 has been a huge success and the slogan has now become a household name. In the Year 2015 the Gama portal and Grahak Suvidha Kendras were launched to empower the common man.

To empower consumers as India goes digital many new schemes have been started by the government. In this article as we celebrate the World Consumer Right's Day I discuss two important developments in the area of consumer protection.

E-Commerce Policy and Consumer Protection

India is the fastest growing E-Commerce market amongst the top global economies and the online retailing has transformed how business is done in India. According to reports the e-retail market is growing at 53% and by 2026 the E-Commerce is expected to grow to $200 billion. E-Commerce activities are governed by various Regulations and Acts of the Government. Information Technology Act 2000 offers legal recognition for the transactions carried out by means of electronic data interchange and other means of electronic communication, which involve the use of alternatives to paperbased methods of communication and storage of information. E-commerce companies need to meet the rules with the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable laws of the country. Such companies with FDI can operate only in activities which are specifically permitted. Any violation of FDI regulations are covered by the penal provisions of the FEMA. Reserve Bank of India administers the FEMA and Directorate of Enforcement under the Ministry of Finance is the authority for the enforcement of FEMA. Further, activities of e-commerce companies inter alia involve compliance of Shops and Establishments Act of the State concerned.

The Consumer Protection Act, 1986 enacted for better protection of the interests of the consumers covers all goods and services and all mode of transactions including e-commerce. Under this Act, a three tier quasi-judicial mechanism, called Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission and Forum, has been set up at the District, State and National levels to provide simple, quick and inexpensive redressal to consumer disputes. From August 2016, the portal www.consumerhelpline.gov.in has been developed to provide a platform to consumers to register their complaints. Moreover, National Consumer Helpline (NCH) set up by the Department of Consumer Affairs receive complaints from consumers who have made purchases whether in online or offline mode. It has collaborated with 400 companies to resolve consumer's complaints and is an alternate grievance redressal method available to consumers.

Further, the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) has a consumer affairs department to provide consumers with prompt attention and speedy redressal of their grievances lodged regarding quality of BIS certified products.

Source: Annual Report, Ministry of Consumer Affairs

Recently a research on online shopping revealed that 1 in 5 products sold by e-retailers are counterfeits and fake and the chances of fake products are the highest in case of fragrances, cosmetics, sporting goods and bags. Delhi High Court in a step towards ensuring duplicate products of popular brands are not sold on online marketplaces, directed an online portal company to make sure that each item put up for sale on its site is authentic. Intermediaries, according to the Information Technology (IT) Act, includes e-commerce sites as they provide services to customers on behalf of sellers. The court also said that the websites should take an authentication from all sellers that the product displayed on the website are genuine and not duplicates and counterfeits. Apart from that, the sites are also directed to obtain a certificate or a guarantee from its sellers that goods sold on the platform are genuine, all warranties and guarantees of the brands are applicable and would be honoured. Products of any sellers who are unable to provide such a guarantee would not be offered on the platform.

Hallmarking Scheme

India's total consumption of gold is 800-850 tonnes out of which 60% comes from the rural markets. To provide third party assurance and satisfaction that consumers are getting right purity of gold (or silver) for the given price (value for money) the hallmarking scheme has been introduced by BIS. Hallmarking is the accurate determination and official recording of the proportionate content of precious metals. Hallmarks are thus official marks used in many countries as a guarantee of purity or fineness of precious metal articles. In India, at present two precious metals namely gold and silver have been brought under the purview of Hallmarking.

Hallmark serves as third party assurance. Consumers can get their jewellery/sample tested from any of the BIS Recognized Assaying & Hallmarking Centre. The Assaying and Hallmarking Centres undertake the testing of Jewellery/Samples of consumers on priority basis by charging fees. The Assaying and Hallmarking centres are required to issue Assay Report giving proper identifications as marked on article. In case Hallmarked Jewellery brought by the consumer is found to be of lesser purity than that marked on jewellery, the testing charges would be refunded to the consumer by the centre who had hallmarked the jewellery. The jeweller shall be obliged to satisfy the consumer through replacement as envisaged in the existing scheme. For getting a gold article hallmarked charges are Rs. 35/- per article and minimum charges for a consignment should be Rs. 200/- (Services Tax and other levies as applicable shall be extra). To get a silver article hallmarked hallmarking charges are Rs.25/-per article and Minimum charges per consignment is Rs 150.00.(Services Tax and other levies as applicable shall be extra).

From January 1st 2017 one should look for the following in a hallmarked gold article

- a. BIS Mark
- b. Purity in carat and Fineness (it can be any of the following)
  - 1) 22K916 Corresponding to 22 Carat
  - 2) 18K750 Corresponding to 18 Carat
  - 3) 14K585 Corresponding to 14 Carat
- c. Assaying/Hallmarking Centre's Identification Mark/Number
- d. Jeweller's Identification Mark/number

From January 1st 2017 consumers should look for the following identification marks while purchasing a hallmarked silver article

- ♦ BIS Mark Silver
- ♦ Purity grade/fineness (it can be any one of the following)

Grade	Fineness
9999	999.9
9995	999.5
999	Fine Silver 999.0
990	990.0
970	970.0
925	925.0
900	Silver alloys 900.0
835	for jewellery 835.0
800	artefacts 800.0

- ♦ Assaying/Hallmarking Centre's Identification Mark/Number
- ♦ Jeweller's Identification Mark/number

In order to avoid frauds in gold and silver jewelley consumers should buy hallmarked jewellery and should keep the authentication certificate safely.

Conclusion: The success of consumer movement in the country depends upon the awareness amongst the people, especially consumers in rural areas about their rights. Observance of the World Consumer Right's Day goes a long way in generating awareness amongst consumers about their rights and the existence of redressal agencies. Voluntary consumer organisations and educational institutions can play an important role in strengthening the consumer movement. Consumers are also bound to take adequate care and empowered while dealing with offline and online purchases in order to safeguard their own interest in the market.

to rise to their expectations they do not take much time to pelt stones on your houses and hurl shoes and rotten eggs on your faces. Bricks are there in the same number so are bouquets. So the task of a cricket player is not so much easier as much we feel elated and jealous to watch them.

Therefore for a grand and much-wished success and long-survival in the arena of cricket an aspiring youngster must take into the consideration the following points very seriously-

ALL DO NOT HAVE THE SAME OPPORTUNITIES

It is a bitter fact that urban youths have more opportunities to become a successful cricketer vis-a-vis that of rural urchins. However, this is not any hard and fast rule. But the youth from towns and cities have more facilities and exposure and as a result they can very easily get enrolled with the cricket association and trained in the academy run by it. Moreover, the urban candidates have access to a number of cricket clubs and private cricket coaching institutes. But it does never mean that rural people do not have any chance to be a star cricketer. The rural aspirants have more time and better concentration to devote to their favourite play of cricket. So it is never the matter of any speeding ball coming from the bat from going to boundary and across the boundary. You may not take a single wicket on a certain day--no problem, you can prove your inevitability in the team by scoring a few much-needed runs to see your team win the match. Hence, getting proficiency in all the segments of the cricket proves to be the sure-shot formula for ensuring one's birth in the team of the country.

BELIEVE IN YOURSELF AND HAVE INDOMITABLE PATIENCE

You must have got bewildered and angered having found your star cricket players standing on the crease and failing to score even a single from a score of balls bowled to him. But the reality on the crease is so bizarrely different from the cosy seats of the stadium from where the audiences watch their heroes play the cricket.

The bottom line is that cricket requires a very high level of courage and patience to brave the adverse situation in and out of the stadium. Not only this, you also need to be very patient when you fail to make it to the national list of the players despite your hard labour, sincere effort and sole dedication. Keep playing more of the matches which will ultimately perfect you in it. Besides, you need to be very mentally strong. Keep yourself away from negative comments and criticisms which are so natural when your fans expect disappointment when you do not come from an urban locality.

BECOME AN ALL-ROUNDER PLAYER

The world of cricket has undergone a host of drastic changes over the past a few decades and it has only one success mantra and it is 'Survival of the fittest'.

You need to hone yourself to fit in all roles of the sport of cricket like those of bawling, batting and fielding. If you fail once to score a fifty or century... no problem, you can considerably lead your team to victory by preventing every fast so much from you and dream so earnestly to become like you.

In this sport of uncertainty, there is only one time-tested rule of success which the would-be cricketer must not afford to forget, "Look always to your laurels rather than sitting on your laurels."
